The Heritage Of Klickitat Basketry A History And Art Preserved:

The Heritage of Klickitat Basketry Nettie Kuneki, Elsie Thomas, Marie Slockish, 1982 The Art of Native American Basketry Frank Porter, 1990-04-10 In recent years Native American basketry has aroused the interest and admiration of individuals from the scholar to the collector It is a complex subject and offers an opportunity to study through time the various changes which transpired in its function form and manufacture Native American Basketry A Living Legacy by Frank W Porter III is the first major study of the subject since 1904 and presents a collection of essays written by those intimately familiar with the basket makers and basketry of North America Illustrated with approximately 80 black and white photographs many of which are historical records of basket makers and their baskets Native American Basketry uses archaeological ethnographic historical and contemporary information in discussing the changes in native basketry from prehistoric times to the present In spite of the wide range of habitats as well as the social and cultural diversity of the basket making tribes it is surprising to discover the similar ways the basket makers adapted basketry after prolonged contact with nonIndian peoples The book is especially well suited not only for the scholar of American Indian art history but cultural history as well The Forgotten Tribes Donald M. Hines, 1991 Collection of annotated legends from the Tenino Umatilla and Watlala or Cascades Indians American Regional Folklore Terry Mood Leopold, 2004-09-24 An easy to use guide to American regional folklore with advice on conducting research regional essays and a selective annotated bibliography American Regional Folklore begins with a chapter on library research including how to locate a library suitable for folklore research how to understand a library s resources and how to construct a research strategy Mood also gives excellent advice on researching beyond the library locating and using community resources like historical societies museums fairs and festivals storytelling groups local colleges newspapers and magazines and individuals with knowledge of the field The rest of the book is divided into eight sections each one highlighting a separate region the Northeast the South and Southern Highlands the Midwest the Southwest the West the Northwest Alaska and Hawaii Each regional section contains a useful overview essay written by an expert on the folklore of that particular region followed by a selective annotated bibliography of books and a directory of related resources American Indian Basketry and Other Native Arts , 1983 Folk Arts of Washington State Harry Gammerdinger, 1989 Northwest Anthropological Research Notes Roderick Sprague, Deward E. Walker, Jr., On the Pow Wow Circuit in the Interior Northwest Kathleen A Dahl The Southeastern Idaho Prehistoric Sequence Ernest S Lohse Towards an Early Social History of Chinook Jargon Christopher F Roth Notes on Indian Houses of the Wappato Valley Yvonne Hajda Changes in Subsistence Strategies at the Tsawwassen Site a Southwestern British Columbia Shell Midden Karla D Kusmer A Bibliography of Plateau Ethnobotany Debra Welch Michael Striker American Indian Basketry Magazine , 1979 Native American Basketry Frank Porter, 1988-04-27 This bibliography includes more than 1 100 entries from books journals newspaper articles and dissertations concerning North American Indian basketry More general cultural works with some information on basketry are also included and the materials date from early ethnographic work in the late 19th and early 20th centuries to 1987 The introduction offers a good overview of research in Native American basketry and although the annotations vary greatly in thoroughness and length they are generally useful This unique well produced bibliography is recommended for collections supporting programs in anthropology crafts or Native American Studies Choice Interest in Native American basketry dates from the late 1800s when an enthusiastic public together with curators academic collectors and archaeologists first began to appreciate the value and uniqueness of these beautiful hand crafted artifacts This bibliography is the first comprehensive guide to publications on the subject Organized by major cultural areas of North America it offers annotated listings of books journal articles dissertations theses monographs and selected newspaper articles published over the last 100 years In his introductory essay Porter discusses the history of Native American basket making and the findings and views of some of the anthropologists archaeologists and popular writers whose works contribute to our knowledge of the subject The bibliography is divided into eleven sections each dealing with a specific geographical cultural area Entries are cross referenced and a comprehensive index gives convenient access to authors titles and subjects

The Four Winds Guide to Indian Artifacts Preston E. Miller,1997 Authentic American Indian made clothing containers weapons horse gear pottery textiles and jewelry is presented visually through photographs and in a detailed text identifying the origins materials uses and value on today s market A separate bead glossary provides information on beadwork styles bead colors and bead sizes
