The Iconography of the Sarcophagus of Junius Bassus Elizabeth Struthers Malbon, 2014-07-14 Carved for a Roman city prefect who was a newly baptized Christian at his death the sarcophagus of Junius Bassus is not only a magnificent example of the fine style of mid fourth century sculpture but also a treasury of early Christian iconography clearly indicating the Christianization of Rome and the Romanization of Christianity Whereas most previous scholarship has focused on the style of the sarcophagus Elizabeth Struthers Malbon explores the perplexing elements of its iconography in their fourth century context In so doing she reveals the distinction between pagan and Christian images to be less rigid than sometimes thought Against the background of earlier and contemporary art and religious literature Malbon explicates the relationship of the facade s two levels of scenes depicting stories from the Old and New Testaments the connection between the scenes on the facade with those on the lid and ends of the sarcophagus and the integration of pagan elements within a Christian work What emerges is a carefully constructed iconographic program shedding light on the development of early Christian art within late antique culture Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Let the Reader Understand Edwin K. Broadhead, 2018-03-22 This book honors the extraordinary contribution of Elizabeth Struthers Malbon to biblical studies In the opening chapter Werner Kelber places Malbon s work within the larger context of critical reflection from antiquity to the modern era on the role and function of discourse Kelber locates Malbon s approach squarely within the framework of modernity and concludes that her supremely creative achievement has been the employment of modern narrative critical tools with a view toward uncovering the fecundity of the gospel of Mark Drawing from and conversing with Professor Malbon s extensive publications each of the five sections engages a theme from her works focusing particularly on the Gospel of Mark This tribute includes meaning as narrative issues in methodology studies in characterization narrative readings of specific texts and aesthetic and political readings Contributors include Werner H Kelber R Alan Culpepper Kelly R Iverson Mikeal C Parsons David Barr David J A Clines Robert C Tannehill J Cheryl Exum Heidi Hornik and Richard Walsh
