Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1960 Poetry Harriet Monroe,1961 The Theatre ,1902 A Mental Theater Alan Richardson,1988-01-01 Certain works of Romantic drama Shelley alone envisions their transcendence through his radical transformation of consciousness in the conclusion to Prometheus Unbound This interpretation of mental theater will lead to a new evaluation of the Romantics as dramatic poets It brings back to critical attention neglected but challenging works such as Byron s Heaven and Earth and Beddoes s Death s Jest Book and provides vital new perspectives on undervalued texts like Wordsworth s The Borderers and Byron s Manfred and Cain It qualifies decades of critical speculation on Romantic individualism and Romantic consciousness and helps return the ideal of imaginative sympathy to the central position held in the critical writings of the Romantics themselves Finally in emphasizing the dramatic quality of mental theater it challenges the still prevalent view that Romantic poetry is inherently lyrical in character Scholars concerned with English Romantic drama Romantic literature and the Romantic period as well as English drama will find this work to be an important contribution to their understanding The Classical Weekly ,1915

Dramatic Mirror of Motion Pictures and the Stage ,1918 Stage Mothers Laura Engel,Elaine M. McGirr,2014-11-06 Stage Mothers explores the connections between motherhood and the theater both on and off stage throughout the long eighteenth century Although the realities of eighteenth century motherhood and representations of maternity have recently been investigated in relation to the novel social history and political economy the idea of motherhood and its connection to the theatre as a professional material literary and cultural site has received little critical attention The essays in this volume spanning the period from the Restoration to Regency address these forgotten maternal narratives focusing on the representation of motherhood as the defining female role the interplay between an actress s celebrity persona and her chosen roles the performative balance between the cults of maternity and that of the passionate actress and tensions between sex and maternity and or maternity and public authority In examining the overlaps and disconnections between representations and realities of maternity in the long eighteenth century and by looking at written received visual and performed records of motherhood Stage Mothers makes an important contribution to debates central to eighteenth century cultural history Theatre at the Crossroads of Culture Patrice Pavis,2003-09-02 Western culture has a long and fraught history of cultural appropriation a history that has particular resonance within performance practice Patrice Pavis asks what is at stake politically and aesthetically when cultures meet at the crossroads of theatre A series of major recent productions are analysed including Peter Brook s Mahabharata Cixous Mnouchkine s Indiande and Barba s Faust These focus discussions on translation appropriation adaptation cultural misunderstanding and theatrical exploration Never losing sight of the theatrical experience Pavis confronts problems of colonialism anthropology and ethnography This signals a radical movement away from the director and the word towards the complex relationship between performance performer and spectator

Despite the problematic politics of cultural exchange in the theatre interculturalism is not a one sided process Using the metaphor of the hourglass to discuss the transfer between source and target culture Pavis asks what happens when the hourglass is turned upside down when the foreign culture speaks for itself Black British Women's Theatre Nicola Abram,2020-10-12 This book marks a significant methodological shift in studies of black British women s theatre it looks beyond published plays to the wealth of material held in archives of various kinds from national repositories and themed collections to individuals personal papers It finds there a cache of unpublished manuscripts and production recordings distinctive for their non naturalistic aesthetics Close analysis of selected works identifies this as an intersectional feminist creative practice Chapters focus on five theatre companies and artists spanning several decades Theatre of Black Women 1982 1988 co founded by Booker Prize winning writer Bernardine Evaristo Munirah Theatre Company 1983 1991 Black Mime Theatre Women s Troop 1990 1992 Zindika and SuAndi The book concludes by reflecting on the politics of representation with reference to popular postmillennial playwright debbie tucker green Drawing on new interviews with the playwrights practitioners and their peers this book assembles a rich interconnected and occasionally corrective history of black British women s creativity By reproducing 22 facsimile images of flyers production programmes photographs and other ephemera Black British Women s Theatre Intersectionality Archives Aesthetics not only articulates a hidden history but allows its readers their own encounter with the fragile record of this vibrant past Classical Weekly ,1917
