Helm,2023-11-09 Legacy provides a comprehensive exposition of what it would mean to have a sustainable economy for current and future generations The Woman who Knew Too Much Gayle Greene,1999 This biography illuminates the life and achievements of the remarkable woman scientist who revolutionized the concept of radiation risk In the 1950s Alice Stewart began research that led to her discovery that fetal X rays double a child s risk of developing cancer Two decades later when she was in her seventies she again astounded the scientific world with a study showing that the U S nuclear weapons industry is about twenty times more dangerous than safety regulations permit This finding put her at the center of the international controversy over radiation risk In 1990 the New York Times called Stewart perhaps the Energy Department s most influential and feared scientific critic The Woman Who Knew Too Much traces Stewart s life and career from her early childhood in Sheffield to her medical education at Cambridge to her research positions at Oxford University and the University of Birmingham Gayle Greene is Professor of Women s Studies and Literature Scripps College Footprints to a Legacy Robert L. Campbell,2009-04-02 In this sometimes disturbing and frightening memoir of experiences interviews and government documents Robert Campbell seeks to level the playing field for many atomic veterans after he discovered how great a difference could exist between contemporaneous records and later reconstructed versions of the same nuclear operations Using the Freedom of Information Act Robert tried to match real time data with the footprints experiences of veterans who lived it and compare this information when possible to later versions postulated by officials who were not present at these operations Very interesting reading

The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Sam Deighan, 2021-06-11 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics

Cinematic Reflections on The Legacy of the Holocaust Diana Diamond, Bruce Sklarew, 2018-08-06 An international group of psychoanalysts and film scholars address the enduring emotional legacy of the Holocaust in Cinematic Reflections on the Legacy of the Holocaust Psychoanalytic Perspectives Particular focus is given to how second and third generation survivors have explored and confronted the psychic reverberations of Holocaust trauma in cinema This book focuses on how film is particularly suited to depict Holocaust experiences with vividness and immediacy The similarity of moving images and sound to our dream experience allows access to unconscious processing Film has the potential to reveal the vast panorama of Holocaust history as well as its intrapsychic reverberations Yet despite the recent prominence of Holocaust films documentaries and TV series as well as scholarly books and memoirs these works lack a psychoanalytic optic that elucidates themes such as the repetition compulsion survival guilt disturbances in identity and disruption of mourning that are underlying leitmotifs Cinematic Reflections on the Legacy of the Holocaust will be of great interest to psychoanalysts and therapists as well as to scholars in trauma film and Jewish studies It is also of interest to those concerned with the prevention of genocide and mass atrocities and their long term effects

The Unraveling Memory Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-15 In the annals of human history Hiroshima stands as a stark and somber reminder of the devastating consequences of nuclear warfare This meticulously researched book delves into the intricate narrative of Hiroshima exploring the historical context the decision making process and the enduring legacy of that fateful day With a keen eye for detail and a deep understanding of the subject matter this book unravels the complex web of factors that led to the decision to drop the atomic bomb. It examines the political, military, and ethical considerations that shaped this momentous choice, providing a nuanced perspective on the motivations and actions of those involved. By shedding light on the context in which this decision was made, the book offers a deeper appreciation for its profound implications. Furthermore, the book delves into the devastating impact of the atomic bomb on the people of Hiroshima. It recounts the harrowing tales of survivors known as hibakusha who endured unimaginable suffering and loss. Through their firsthand accounts, the book vividly portrays the physical and psychological wounds inflicted by the bomb, highlighting the enduring trauma that continues to ripple through generations. Beyond the immediate aftermath of the bombing, the book explores the profound and lasting legacy of Hiroshima. It analyzes the efforts to rebuild the city, the challenges of dealing with the lingering effects of radiation, and the ongoing struggle to promote peace and nuclear disarmament. Hiroshima's story serves as a stark reminder of the catastrophic consequences of nuclear war and the urgent need for global cooperation to prevent such tragedies from ever happening again. This book is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit. It is a call to action, urging us to learn from the mistakes of the past and to work tirelessly towards a future where peace prevails and the horrors of Hiroshima are relegated to the pages of history. Through its comprehensive exploration of Hiroshima's history, memory, and legacy, this book aims to contribute to a deeper understanding of this pivotal event and its profound implications for humanity. With its rigorous research, insightful analysis, and compelling narrative, this book is an essential read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Hiroshima's nuclear history and the pursuit of peace. It is a thought-provoking and timely exploration of one of the most significant events in human history, offering valuable lessons for the present and future generations. Art and Activism in the Nuclear Age Roman Rosenbaum, Yasuko Claremont, 2023-05-12. This book explores the contemporary legacy of Hiroshima and Nagasaki following the passage of three quarters of a century and the role of art and activism in maintaining a critical perspective on the dangers of the nuclear age. It closely interrogates the political and cultural shifts that have accompanied the transition to a nuclearised world. Beginning with the contemporary socio-political and cultural interpretations of the impact and legacy of the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the chapters examine the challenges posed by committed opponents in the cultural and activist fields to the ongoing development of nuclear weapons and the expanding industrial uses of nuclear power. It explores how the aphorism that all art is political is borne out in the close relation between art and activism. This multi-disciplinary approach to the socio-political and cultural exploration of nuclear energy in relation to Hiroshima and Nagasaki via the arts will be of interest to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies, social, political, and cultural studies, fine arts, and art and aesthetic studies.
