The Letter And The Spirit Discerning Gods Will In A Complex World Lutheran Voices:

Living Lutheran Dave Daubert, 2007-01-01 Kelly Fryer's book Reclaiming the L Word introduced one congregation's journey through renewal. Now Dave Daubert provides a practical how-to guide that will enable church leaders to help individual congregations walk through the process for themselves. Creative and informative, the book provides a straightforward approach that helps congregations reclaim Lutheran tradition for the 21st century. Includes questions for individual or group reflection and an additional resources section.

Paul on the Cross David A. Brondos, Even as theologians and others have become more critical of classic theories of atonement, Brondos maintains biblical scholars have continued to understand Paul's soteriology based on the language and categories of a thousand years later. In this vital volume, he draws the theological consequences of the new perspective on Paul for our understanding of the meaning and efficacy of Jesus' death. Paul says Brondos understood Jesus' death primarily as the consequence of his mission of serving as God's instrument to bring about the awaited redemption of Israel, in which Gentiles throughout the world would also be included. For Paul, Jesus' death is salvific not because it satisfies some necessary condition for human salvation, as most doctrines of the atonement have traditionally maintained, nor because it effects some change in the situation of human beings or the world in general, but because God responded to Jesus' faithfulness unto death by raising him, ensuring that all the divine promises of salvation would be fulfilled through him. Jesus' death forms part of an overarching story culminating in the redemption of Israel and the world; it is this story and, in particular, what precedes and follows Jesus' death on the cross which makes that death redemptive for Paul.

Reclaiming the "C" Word Kelly A. Fryer, 2006-04-24 God is up to something. God is on a mission to save and bless the world, and God calls the church to be part of this mission. That means getting focused, setting people free, taking action, expecting surprises, and being hopeful. A church on God's mission isn't a building or a building plus a pastor. It's people, people who carry out God's mission in the world. Building on her bestselling book Reclaiming the L Word, Kelly A. Fryer gives practical advice on how to transform our idea of church and what that means for our lives as Christians.

The Letter and the Spirit David Brondos, 2005 This book offers biblical principles for addressing difficult ethical questions that Christians face today. Written in an accessible way, Brondos seeks to help readers discern the principles behind biblical prescriptions and interpret these in light of concern for human wholeness and well-being. Helps Lutheran Christians reflect on what it means to look to Scripture for answers to complex problems.

The book tells the story of how the Lutheran church and its people have responded to the suffering of those most affected by the storms.
