The Letter on Apologetics, and History and Dogma Maurice Blondel, 1964 The work of French philosopher Maurice Blondel lies behind most of the controversies in twentieth century French Catholic thought and bore its fruit in the Second Vatican Council Recognized in Europe as one of the outstanding figures in the Catholic revival that began at the turn of the century Blondel was described by Pope John Paul II as one of the first to discern what was at stake in the Modernist crisis Published together here are two of Blondel's most significant texts The Letter on Apologetics 1896 is a key statement on the possibility and meaning of Christian philosophy History and Dogma 1904 written in response to the Modernist crisis is an important contribution to the notion of tradition seeing it neither in terms of historicism nor as something mechanical but as a living synthesis Introductory essays by Alexander Dru and Illyd Trethowan provide essential historical and biographical background as well as an account of the philosophical and theological principles of Blondel's thought Back cover The Letter on Apologetics, And, History and Dogma Maurice Blondel, 1995-01 An Actological Theology Malcolm Torry, 2024-05-30 An actology introduced by the first book in this series Actology Action Change and Diversity in the Western Philosophical Tradition understands reality as action in changing patterns Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy reads a number of continental philosophers through this lens and An Actology of the Given explores the concepts of the gift givenness and giving in the light of reality understood as action in changing patterns Mark's Gospel An Actological Reading is what it says it is An Actological Metaphysic is a more systematic treatment of cosmology and of such concepts as truth knowledge causality time space life and society to see what happens when they are understood actologically that is with reality understood as action in changing patterns An Actological Theology similarly asks what Christian theology might look like if God the universe ourselves and everything else is understood as action in changing patterns Themelios, Volume 33, Issue 1 D. Recognizing the Gift Daniel A. Rober, 2016-06-01 Recognizing the Gift puts twentieth century Catholic theological conversations on nature and grace, particularly those of Henri de Lubac and Karl Rahner, into dialogue with Continental philosophy, notably the thought of Jean-Luc Marion and Paul Ricoeur. It argues that a renewed theology of nature and grace must build on the accomplishments of the recent past while acknowledging that an engagement with the political is unavoidable for theology. Ultimately, the aim is to revive and broaden discussion of nature and grace by drawing together the insights of contemporary theologians and Continental philosophers. Too often, these areas of inquiry remain quite separate in part due to differing priorities This work tries to open that conversation in part by critically pointing out in dialogue with Ricoeur the need in Marion's work for an acknowledgment of recognition reciprocity and the political It thus argues for a theology of nature and grace in terms of recognition of the gift drawing out the reciprocal and political nature of gift and givenness in opposition to those including Marion who would seek to avoid politics and reciprocity as a proper avenue of inquiry for theology      Confessing and Commending the Faith Alan P.F. Sell,2006-09-01 Since Christianity is a way and not simply a theory commending the faith to others is an activity in which every Christian participates Confessing and Commending the Faith discusses the presuppositions which underlie the intellectual commendation of Christianity in the face of the philosophical challenges of the present day Following his earlier books John Locke and the Eighteenth Century Divines and Philosophical Idealism and Christian Belief Alan Sell proposes a way of proceeding with Christian apologetics in the twenty first century He discusses what Christians wish to proclaim asks whether these claims are reasonable and examines what is involved in the intellectual commendation of the Christian faith Confessing and Commending the Faith makes extensive use of the historical tradition of apologetics and brings this work to bear on contemporary questions such as the meaning use and reference of religious language and the question of transcendence in relation to history Alan Sell argues that if the intellectual commendation of Christianity's claim to truth is to be viable contemporary apologetics must draw upon reason revelation and experience to do justice to Christianity's basic confession of Christ as Saviour and Lord

Catholicism Contending with Modernity Darrell Jodock,2000-06-22 This 2000 book is a case study in the ongoing struggle of Christianity to define its relationship to modernity examining representative Roman Catholic Modernists and anti Modernists It sketches the nineteenth century background of the Modernist crisis identifying the problems that the church was facing at the beginning of the twentieth century      Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics Matt W. Lee,2022-03-03 In the post Christian world we find sincere efforts in traditional Christian apologetics repeatedly running into invisible walls These blocks happen when cultural issues are neglected With mere rational arguments presented as a defense of Christianity logical answers alone are not attracting the nonbelievers nor resolving their skepticism People today have different obstacles in coming to the Christian faith particularly their own cultural presuppositions How do we present defend and commend Christianity to people whose culture gives them a frame of mind the one that cares very little about how rational the arguments are Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics explores the world of the New Testament and the ministry of the apostle Paul to excavate a fresh model for apologetics with cultural engagement to present an answer Matt W Lee analyzes the dynamics involved in Paul's cultural connection with his audience and how it relates to their receptivity uncovering a scheme of apologetics engagement patterned in his apologetics speeches From the background of Paul's world to the forefront of contemporary apologetics preaching Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics offers a vision of apologetics communication that is both biblical and practical      Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 10, Issue 2 David M.

Godzieba, 2018-05-02 In a consumer driven and technologized world can we still experience the mystery of God This book answers yes by exploring the rich resources of the Christian tradition of thinking and speaking about God Focusing on God s dialectical character divine availability presence and divine excess absence and the belief that God is love 1 John 4 16 professor Anthony J Godzieba tracks how God became a problem in Western culture then responds by showing how human experience is open to divine transcendence and how that openness encounters the revelation of God as Trinity The book s contemporary edge comes from its insistence that belief as embodied performance is the most authentic way to participate in the mystery of God s love which is the answer to the mystery of the world and human beings Walter Kasper
