The Letters Of Frederick Philip Grove:

Briefe, engl. u. dt Felix Paul Greve, Desmond Pacey, 1976 The Letters of Frederick Philip Grove Frederick Philip Grove, 1976 Both Hands Sandra Campbell, 2013-05-01 Editor and publisher workaholic and romantic idealist and pioneer Lorne Pierce once described his editorial desk as an altar at which I serve the entire cultural life of Canada Pierce laboured at his altar between 1920 and 1960 as the driving force behind Ryerson Press the leading publisher of Canadian works during the mid twentieth century In Both Hands Sandra Campbell captures the inimitable cultural role of a remarkable man whose work paved the way for the creation of a national identity Both Hands delves into the encounters trials and triumphs that inspired Pierce's vision of cultural nationalism from his rural upbringing in eastern Ontario to the philosophical ideals he acquired at Queen's University to his service as a teacher a Methodist preacher and a military man during the First World War All these experiences coalesced in his work at Ryerson Press then Canada's largest publishing house even as he battled lupus and deafness to make his mark on the country's literary scene Campbell situates this unflinching look into Pierce's personal and public life within the context of Canadian society detailing his relationships with major figures such as the Group of Seven Harold Innis Donald Creighton E J Pratt the modernist Montreal poets Northrop Frye and many others Set against the rich backdrop of Canada's early literary and artistic heritage Both Hands vividly presents the life and work of an impresario of literary historical and art publishing of indisputable influence throughout the country's cultural milieu

F.P. Grove in Europe and Canada Klaus Martens, Paul Morris, 2001-07 With more than fifty period photos and documents countless letters and a foreword by E D Blodgett F P Grove in Europe and Canada represents the definitive biography of the writer Northrop Frye called a Canadian Dreiser This work will prove an invaluable resource for scholars in Canadian and German literature comparative literature modernism publishing history and translation studies BOOK JACKET

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay, 2019-12-05 For many Canadians the small province of New Brunswick on Canada's scenic east coast is a nice place to visit but no place to live plagued for generations by outmigration and economic stagnation In The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay challenges this potent stereotype by showcasing the work of a group of literary modernists who set out to change the meaning of New Brunswick in the national lexicon Alfred Bailey Desmond Pacey Fred Cogswell and a formidable group of local poets and cultural workers collectively New Brunswick's Fiddlehead School sought to restore New Brunswick's literary reputation by adapting avant garde modernist practices to the contours of the province opening it to the contemporary world while also encouraging writers to make it their subject The result was a non urban form of modernism that was as responsive to technical innovation as to the human geographies of New Brunswick By placing New Brunswick writers and critics at the forefront of Canadian literature in the midcentury modernist project Tremblay adds an important new chapter to our understanding of Canadian modernism The Fiddlehead Moment is the first critical examination of this group s considerable influence Whether through Bailey s ethnomethodology Pacey s critical ordering or Cogswell s editorial eclecticism in the Fiddlehead magazine and Fiddlehead Poetry Books authors in New Brunswick Tremblay argues had a profound impact on writing in Canada Scandalous Bodies Smaro

Kamboureli,2011-04-07 Scandalous Bodies is an impassioned scholarly study both of literature by diasporic writers and of the contexts within which it is produced It explores topics ranging from the Canadian government s multiculturalism policy to media representations of so called minority groups from the relationship between realist fiction and history to postmodern constructions of ethnicity from the multicultural theory of the philosopher Charles Taylor to the cultural responsibilities of diasporic critics such as Kamboureli herself Smaro Kamboureli proposes no neat or comforting solutions to the problems she addresses Rather than adhere to a single method of reading or make her argument follow a systematic approach she lets the texts and the socio cultural contexts she examines give shape to her reading In fact methodological issues and the need to revisit them become a leitmotif in the book Theoretically rigorous and historically situated this study also engages with close reading not the kind that views a text as a sovereign world but one that opens the text in order to reveal the method of its making Her practice of what she calls negative pedagogy a self reflexive method of learning and unlearning of decoding the means through which knowledge is produced allows her to avoid the pitfalls of constructing a narrative of progress Her critique of Canadian multiculturalism as a policy that advocates what she calls sedative politics and of the epistemologies of ethnicity that have shaped for example the first wave of ethnic anthologies in Canada are the backdrop against which she examines the various discourses that inform the diasporic experience in Canada Scandalous Bodies was first published in 2000 and received the Gabrielle Roy Prize for Canadian Criticism Anglo-American Awareness Gisela

Hermann-Brennecke,Wolf Kindermann,2005 This volume presents an Anglo American research matrix radiating in various directions and transcending traditional academic boundaries and modes of perception It offers a diverse and multi faceted approach covering topics from freemasonry to the documentaries of Michael Moore from the Scottish best seller Trainspotting to German American literature in the US from anarchical traces in British novels to the influence of Laurence Sterne on Philipp Emanuel Bach from postcolonial fiction to intercultural awareness from Canadian literary beginnings to Casablanca Revisited This collection of thirteen contributions reflects the scope vitality and relevance of English and American Studies inside and outside the university Papers on Grove Henry Makow,1979 Photocopy of typescript 13 leaves of Profiles in Canadian literature Frederick Philip Grove and offprint from University of Toronto quarterly v 49 no 1 Fall 1979 p 48 64 Letters from Eden Grove s creative rebirth Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04

First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important autobiographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms

Modern Realism in English-Canadian Fiction Colin Hill,2012-05-07 Much of the scholarship on twentieth century Canadian literature has argued that English Canadian fiction was plagued by backwardness and an inability to engage fully with the movement of modernism that was so prevalent in British and American fiction and poetry Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction re evaluates Canadian literary culture to posit that it has been misunderstood because it is a distinct genre a regional form of the larger international modernist movement Examining literary magazines manifestos archival documents and major writers such as Frederick Philip Grove Morley Callaghan and Raymond Knister Colin Hill identifies a modern realism that crosses regions as well as urban and rural divides A bold reading of the modern realist aesthetic and an articulate challenge to several enduring and limiting myths about Canadian writing Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction will stimulate important debate in literary circles everywhere

Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel,2003-08-29 The first biography of the enigmatic dadaist known as the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven 1874 1927 is considered by many to be the first American dadaist as well as the mother of dada An innovator in poetic form and an early creator of junk sculpture the Baroness was best known for her sexually charged often controversial performances Some thought her merely crazed others thought her a genius The editor Margaret Anderson called her perhaps the only figure of our generation who deserves the epithet extraordinary Yet despite her great notoriety and influence until recently her story and work have been little known outside the circle of modernist scholars In Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel traces the extraordinary life and work of this daring woman viewing her in the context of female dada and the historical battles fought by women in the early twentieth century Striding through the streets of Berlin Munich New York and Paris wearing such adornments as a tomato soup can bra teaspoon earrings and black lipstick the Baroness erased the boundaries between life and art between the everyday and the outrageous between the creative and the dangerous Her art objects were precursors to dada objects of the teens and twenties her sound and visual poetry were far more daring than those of the male modernists of her time and her performances prefigured feminist body art and performance art by nearly half a century

The Canadian Alternative Klaus Martens,2004 Aestheticism and the Canadian Modernists Brian Trehearne,1989-09-01 Trehearne observes that in most cases the Aesthetic influence was sustained through the entire career of the poets whose work he examines Although later affected by the Modernists their works continued to be shaped and distinguished by an early Aesthetic training In the case of A J M Smith for example his initial thematic and stylistic Aestheticism affects his mature critical pronouncements John Glassco who was influenced by the Aesthetic and Modernist ideas throughout his career created a unique form of Aesthetic modern poetry Trehearne s new readings of major and minor Canadian poets make Aestheticism and the Canadian Modernists a central text in the assessment of Canadian literary history from a contemporary point of view Imagining Culture Margaret Turner,1995

Many former members of European empires have demonstrated a need to overcome the colonial process and assert a postcolonial culture Applying postcolonial analysis to Canadian literature Margaret Turner argues that many nineteenth and twentieth century Canadian texts are engaged in the creation of a new discursive space and that new world conditions have decisively informed the discourse of fiction of English Canada The L.M. Montgomery Reader Benjamin Lefebvre,2013-01-01 This second volume narrates the development of L M Montgomery u2019s 1874 u2013 1942 critical reputation in the seventy years since her death It traces milestones and turning points such as adaptations for stage and screen posthumous publications and the development of Montgomery Studies as a scholarly field From publisher description
