through numerous editions a controversial abridgement for the British market condemned by A D Hope as a mutilation and periods of obscurity and rediscovery the text has been reshaped and repackaged by many hands Furphy's first editors at the Bulletin diluted his socialist message and corrected his Australian slang to create a more marketable book Later literary players including Vance and Nettie Palmer Miles Franklin Kate Baker and Angus Robertson all took an interest in how Furphy's work should be published In a fascinating piece of literary detective work Osborne traces the book's journey and shows how economic and cultural forces helped to shape the novel we read today Rachel Henning Ken

Sinke, 2006-09-02 This collection addresses the recent rebirth of interest in immigrant letters As these letters are increasingly seen as key rather than incidental documents in the interpretations of gender age social class and ethnicity nationality the scholars gathered here demonstrate a diversity of new approaches to their interpretation Life in the Country Michael Cannon, 1988 Chapter 4 covers the destruction of Aboriginal society the effects of disease massacres and brutality documented by references from contemporary sources Australia for Women Susan Hawthorne, Renate Klein, 1994 Australia is a land full of opportunities but where can you go to find the things that matter to women This book is a guide to the land as well as the diverse culture of women Women's culture in Australia goes back more than 40 000 years and is a rich mosaic of story art and music On the top of this has come the culture of the past 200 years from the British convicts from China from the Pacific from the newer waves of migration and from the women's movement This is reflected in literature theatre the visual arts music circuses and dance Rural and urban women describe the places they know and love they also describe their histories and show something of what lies behind a first impression Contributors featured include Oodgeroo Noonuccal Faith Bandler Portia Robinson Elizabeth Jolley Sara Dowse Janine Haines Dale Spender Ruby Langford Ginibi Kate Llewellyn and Finola Moorhead The Letters of Rachel Henning, Edited by David Adams R. Henning,

Writing a New World Dale Spender, 1988 A history still in the making Australian women writers through their letters diaries and fictions have created a new world of literature Dale Spender in this lively and provocative history of white women's literature presents a fresh and forthright view of the achievements of convict writers to writers and feminists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement Queenslanders Rod Fisher, 2016 In a single timely tome Rod Fisher packs a lot of what's known about the history of the timbered house in Qld the sum of research writing and practice over 4 decades While breaking new ground on its origin and development the first 4 chapters concern several key themes 1 the evolution of a Vernacular class of housing in the north of Australia from aboriginal to modern day comprising a series of styles and the means of identifying each one by era and attribute 2 the historical context to traditional housing using census data and contemporary testimony to amplify its configuration which reflects cyclical condition personal choice and social acceptance 3 the human dimension to the main varieties of habitat and its environment specifically the pros and cons of observers and occupants of the day followed by resolution of their discrepancies 4 whether Brisbane was in any way different from the rest of the state examining which varieties made the greatest imprint from elite and multiple types to the predominant gabled hipped pyramidal and later multi gabled dwellings of the Vernacular tradition The next couple of chapters are case studies illustrating those aspects particularly the evolution of traditional housing and the impact of historical change Though set in Brisbane they reflect larger issues 5 the early inner suburb of Petrie Terrace which exhibits not only changes in timbered housing over time but also the effect of road improvement shopping centre diversion stadium development building renovation and gentrification more generally 6 a timbered dwelling of nearby Bowen Hills which being modified several times in its lifetime and finally removed elsewhere demonstrates change as well as the influence of the locale and the impact of transportation improvements on housing and community At the same time this volume serves as a guide and reference partly by information advice and example but more specifically by means of the handy classification of Vernacular styles in the 1st chapter and ultimately by instructions for researching any house in Qld 7 a step by step guide to historical investigation and exposition using a dwelling in Annerley Tarragindi as the example That practical purpose is reinforced in the final 3 chapters by a Supplement of related material Glossary of requisite terms and Bibliography of relevant sources on both the history and heritage of timbered housing plus plentiful illustrations of course As there hasn't been a work on this intriguing subject for a long time nor anything ever like this one it will serve general readers professionals researchers writers and academics on the one hand and owners occupants renovators restorers and vendors on the other whether in Brisbane Qld or elsewhere in Australia To all and sundry its core message is conveyed by one of Joni Mitchell's bygone ballads Don't it always seem to go That you don't know what you've got Till it's gone They paved paradise And put up a parking lot

History Of Australia (Volumes 3 & 4) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1824-1888 takes the story of Australia through the momentous discovery of gold and the separation of Victoria from New South Wales to the centenary of the coming of European civilisation to Australia on 26 January 1888 The story is one of destruction as well as construction the destruction of the Aborigines and the construction of an essentially English bourgeois society and the taming of an alien and seemingly sterile land This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive      Science and Power in the Nineteenth-Century Tasman World Alexandra Roginski,2023-06-01 The contentious science of phrenology once promised insight into character and intellect through external reading of the head In the transforming settler colonial landscapes of nineteenth century Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand popular phrenologists figures who often hailed from the margins performed their science of touch and cranial jargon everywhere from mechanics institutions to public houses In this compelling work Alexandra Roginski recounts a history of this everyday practice exploring how it featured in the fates of people living in and moving through the Tasman World Innovatively drawing on historical newspapers and a network of archives she traces the careers of a diverse range of popular phrenologists and those they encountered By analysing the actions at play in scientific episodes through ethnographic social and cultural history Roginski considers how this now discredited science could in its own day yield fleeting power and advantage even against a backdrop of large scale dispossession and social brittleness      The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve,2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature s responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts      Social Patterns in Australian Literature T.
