Continuing Education of Reference Librarians William A. Katz, 1990 Here is a crucial book on the neglected issue of continuing education of reference librarians For librarians seeking to enhance and maintain a high level of quality reference work and for managers who must assure that their staffs receive the basics in continuing education this is essential reading Continuing Education of Reference Librarians addresses the concerns of all librarians that they must be informed and educated in order to excel in their work In the first several chapters of this comprehensive volume on the job librarians focus on the increased need for nontraditional approaches to continuing education and training of reference staff They offer practical ways of making additional training both useful and relatively easy to carry out within the library setting Teachers of reference offer suggestions for contending with current formal courses and they also examine the responsibilities of not only the reference librarian but also the bibliographer and faculty member in staying abreast of current trends Also in this broad based look at continuing education is a list of critical skills most librarians expect of their reference people including reference interview techniques mastery of basic reference sources and an understanding of new technologies a review of the most revolutionary change in teaching reference librarianship in the last 100 years the online search and a discussion on ethics including the need for librarians to be aware of the basic documents of the American Library Association and more importantly the need to treat all library users equally in terms of access and service regardless of status and personal prejudice Continuing Education of Reference Librarians focuses on specific types of training for librarians Authorities explain pioneering programs in California and Maryland which deal with teaching basic reference tools to beginning librarians and paraprofessionals They also discuss the role of multitype networks in continuing education as the most cost and time efficient means available today and the use of self directed contract learning as a method that requires long term planning and rewards in contrast to the immediate results of a short term plan of education The management perspective of continuing education is also included Working library directors offer their observations on sound inspirational approaches to continuing education They also examine the critical role department heads play as mentor to beginning reference librarians

Communication Informatics and Librarianship in India S. P. Agrawal, Pushpa Rani Sharma, 1992

Finance, Budget, and Management for Reference Services Ruth A. Fraley, Bill Katz, 2019-12-06 The library budget a topic of primary importance to the reference librarian is thoroughly examined in this book first published in 1988 Experts offer insightful suggestions for reference librarians to understand and take responsibility for budget issues directly and indirectly They address the ability to explain the budget which actually entails explaining the collection the services and the process in place for managing the fiscal resources a necessary skill for any reference librarian faced with looming budget cuts Providing quality services on a limited budget is also explored The contributors provide helpful essays on convincing the parent agency to provide adequate support setting goals and priorities generating revenue and more

Reference Assessment and Evaluation Tom Diamond, Mark Sanders, 2013-01-11 Learn effective ways to assess and evaluate reference services in YOUR library Innovation and the constant evolution of technology continually spur academic librarians to find superior ways to deliver high quality reference service to students faculty and researchers Reference Assessment and Evaluation offers librarians and administrators a plethora of fresh ideas and methods to effectively assess and evaluate reference service in any academic library Leading experts share their own best practices in delivering digital reference training staff and student workers and providing instruction through case studies from academic libraries of all sizes Because of fiscal pressures the need to attract the best and brightest students and faculty to the academy and increased competition from Internet search engines the evaluation and assessment of reference service remains one of the most important challenges for academic libraries Reference Assessment and Evaluation provides practical tips and clear examples on assessing and evaluating several diverse aspects of reference services This book discusses in detail case studies from various colleges and universities on wide ranging issues such as virtual reference evaluation merging reference desks peer evaluations library instruction and staff development Academic libraries of all types will find opportunities to modify these innovative ideas to remain at the forefront of reference service Topics in Reference Assessment and Evaluation include a case study of the library at the University of Colorado at Boulder s efforts to implement a drop in research consultation program for students enrolled in the introductory writing course coordination of an annual professional development program for specialized instruction targeted at faculty and staff members at Colorado State University peer observation between the reference staff members of Augustana College Library and St Ambrose University Library the merging of San Jose State University s government publication desk with the reference services desk along with the public library s reference desk Valparaiso University s main library s training and use of student assistants analyzing user and librarian satisfaction within virtual reference transactions evaluation of the University of South Alabama s Baugh Biomedical Library s chat reference service evaluation of the University of Texas at Arlington s virtual reference service library technology s impact on reference desk statistics statistical analysis of reference desk data for staffing needs at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga Reference Assessment and Evaluation is timely important reading for academic references librarians and supervisors

Information and Referral in Reference Services Marcia Stucklen Middleton, Bill Katz, 2013-10-18 This book investigates a wide variety of situations and models which fall under the umbrella of information and referral It examines traditional views in public libraries and library systems as well as descriptions of programs in nontraditional settings such as academic libraries A human services perspective is explored and research models are presented
