Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski,2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet s Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet s Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840 1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world s best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet s celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet s version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism s major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet s Minutes traces the evolution of Monet s art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet s works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century art society and modern temporality Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery,Charles E. Scott,1990-10-02 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl s call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl s metanarrative of history and rationality The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post Husserlian and post subjective philosophies of Heidegger Foucault Derrida and others Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl's analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl's early writings The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl Habermas Foucault and recent feminist theory They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end The Path of Archaic Thinking Kenneth Maly, 1995-03-02 This book demonstrates that the kind of philosophy called Continental thought belongs to America in its own right It reflects the depth originality and revolutionary character of Sallis's re-doing imagination of his twisting imagination free from a metaphysics of presence and of subjectivity The book includes essays by Walter Biemel Peg Birmingham Walter Brogan Françoise Dastur Jacques Derrida Parvis Emad Eliane Escoubas Bernard Freydsberg Rodolphe Gasch Michel Haar John Llewelyn Kenneth Maly Adriaan Peperzak James Risser and Charles Scott This array of contributors demonstrates the place that Sallis's work has on the forefront of contemporary Continental thought The book concludes with an original piece by John Sallis himself in which he thinks the philosophical sense of wonder in Aristotle Plato Hegel the end of metaphysics and Heidegger Light and Color John S. Aspects of Monet John Rewald, Frances Weitzenhoffer, 1984 Last Light Richard Lacayo, 2022-10-11 One of the nation's top art critics shows how six great artists made old age a time of triumph by producing some of the greatest work of their long careers and in some cases changing the course of art history Ordinarily we think of young artists as the bomb throwers Monet and Renoir were still in their twenties when they embarked on what would soon be called Impressionism as were Picasso and Braque when they ventured into Cubism But your sixties and the decades that follow can be no less liberating if they too bring the confidence to attempt new things Young artists may experiment because they have nothing to lose older ones because they have nothing to fear With their legacies secure they're free to reinvent themselves sometimes with revolutionary results Titian's late style offered a way for pigment itself not just the things it depicted to express feelings on the canvas foreshadowing Rubens Frans Hals 19th century Impressionists and 20th century Expressionists Goya's late work enlarged the psychological territory that artists could enter Monet's late waterlily paintings were eventually recognized as prophetic for the centerless diaphanous space developed after World War II by abstract expressionists like Jackson Pollock and Phillip Guston In his seventies Matisse began to produce some of the most joyful art of the 20th century especially his famous cutouts that brought an ancient craft into the realm of High Modernism Hopper the ultimate realist used old age on occasion to depart into the surreal And Nevelson the patron saint of late bloomers pioneered a new kind of sculpture wall sized wooden assemblages made from odds and ends she scavenged from the streets of Manhattan Though these six artists differed in many respects they shared one thing a determination to go on creating driven not by the bounding energies of youth but by the ticking clock that would inspire them to produce some of their greatest masterpieces Renoir: An Intimate Biography Barbara Ehrlich White, 2017-11-07 A major new biography of this enduringly popular artist by the world's foremost scholar of his life and work Expertly researched and beautifully written by the world's leading authority on Auguste Renoir's life and work Renoir fully reveals this most intriguing of Impressionist artists The narrative is interspersed with more than 1 100 extracts from letters by to and about Renoir 452 of which come from unpublished letters Renoir became hugely popular despite great obstacles thirty years of poverty followed by thirty years of progressive paralysis of his fingers Despite these hardships much of his work is optimistic even joyful Close friends who contributed money contacts and companionship enabled him to overcome these challenges to create more than 4 000 paintings Renoir had intimate relationships with fellow artists Caillebotte C zanne Monet and Morisot with his dealers Durand Ruel Bernheim and Vollard and with his models Lise Aline Gabrielle and D d e Barbara Ehrlich White's lifetime of research informs this fascinating biography that challenges common misconceptions surrounding Renoir's reputation Since 1961 White has studied more than 3 000 letters relating to Renoir and gained unique insight into his personality and character Renoir provides an unparalleled and intimate portrait of this complex artist through images of his own iconic paintings his own words and the words of his contemporaries Barbara White is a biographer of courage seriousness and unrelenting honesty She has read and dissected about 3 000 letters about Renoir written by him his friends his family as well as the newspapers of the day Practically every member of the Renoir family has entrusted their personal documents to her a pledge of trust totally deserved Whenever I am asked a question about Auguste I write to Barbara to ask her opinion or call on her knowledge since she has become an indisputable reference for me She is always careful and verifies facts and contexts by every route possible The Renoir family and Auguste himself are very lucky that Barbara is so passionate about her subject and I feel personally lucky to know her I thank her from the bottom of my heart for this work of a lifetime a magnificent success I am very pleased that her book has been edited by the quality editors at Thames Hudson as it will remain a point of reference for many generations to come Sophie Renoir great granddaughter of Auguste Renoir granddaughter of his eldest son Pierre and daughter of Renoir's grandson Claude Renoir Jr June 7 2017 The Arts ,1927 Impressionism Anne Distel,Michel Hoog,Charles S. Moffett,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1974 Claude Monet Jason Thompson,2016-05-15 Monet was a founder of French Impressionist painting and the most consistent and prolific practitioner of the movement's philosophy of expressing one's perceptions before nature especially as applied to plein air landscape painting The term Impressionism is derived from the title of his painting Impression soleil levant Impression Sunrise which was exhibited in 1874 in the first of the independent exhibitions mounted by Monet and his associates as an alternative to the Salon de Paris Monet's ambition of documenting the French countryside led him to adopt a method of painting the same scene many times in order to capture the changing of light and the passing of the seasons From 1883 Monet lived in Giverny where he purchased a house and property and began a vast landscaping project which included lily ponds that would become the subjects of his best known works In 1899 he began painting the water lilies first in vertical views with a Japanese bridge as a central feature and later in
