Claude Monet, 1969 New York Magazine, 1992-12-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. The Collected Essays and Criticism, Volume 4 Clement Greenberg, 1986 Clement Greenberg is widely recognized as the most influential and articulate champion of modernism during its American ascendancy after World War II. The period largely covered by these highly acclaimed volumes of The Collected Essays and Criticism. Volume 3, Affirmations and Refusals, presents Greenberg's writings from the period between 1950 and 1956, while Volume 4, Modernism with a Vengeance, gathers essays and criticism of the years 1957 to 1969. The 120 works range from little-known pieces originally appearing in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar to such celebrated essays as "The Plight of Our Culture" (1953), "Modernist Painting" (1960) and "Post Painterly Abstraction" (1964). Preserved in their original form, these writings allow readers to witness the development and direction of Greenberg's criticism from his advocacy of abstract expressionism to his enthusiasm for color field painting. With the inclusion of critical exchanges between Greenberg and F.R. Leavis, Fairfield Porter, Thomas B. Hess, Herbert Read, Max Kozloff and Robert Goldwater, these volumes are essential sources in the ongoing debate over modern art. For each volume, John O'Brian has furnished an introduction, a selected bibliography and a brief summary of events that places the criticism in its artistic and historical context.
