Biography by Americans, 1658-1936 Edward H. O'Neill, 2016-11-11 This volume is the most comprehensive bibliography of purely biographical material written by Americans It covers every possible field of life but by design excludes autobiographies diaries and journals

Wyoming, a Guide to Its History, Highways, and People , 1981-01-01 First published in the famous American Guide Series of the Work Projects Administration in 1941 Wyoming A Guide remains a distinguished survey of the state its centers of interest and its history Now issued in paperback for the first time it can introduce to new readers the geographic spectacle and pioneer history that continue to shape the character of Wyoming A new introduction by T A Larson author of History of Wyoming updates the Guide and evaluates changes seen in the state since the book was first published Valuable to the resident as a reference to the state s many treasures and useful to the tourist who wants to know more than the road signs tell Wyoming A Guide commemorates those who passed through to the West and those who stayed to forge a state in the heart of the frontier      Wyoming, a Guide to Its History, and People, Best Books on,1941      The First We Can Remember Lee Schweninger,2011-11-01 Looking over the great prairie in the early 1880s Nellie Buchanan said I knew I would never be contented until I had a home of our own in the wonderful West Some were not so sanguine Mary Cox described the prairie as the most barren forsaken country that we had ever seen Like the others whose stories appear in this book these women were describing their own thoughts and experiences traveling to and settling in what became Colorado Sixty seven of their original first person narratives recounted to Civil Works Administration workers in 1933 and 1934 are gathered for the first time in this book The First We Can Remember presents richly detailed vivid and widely varied accounts by women pioneers during the late nineteenth century Narratives of white American born European and Native American women contending with very different circumstances and geographical challenges tell what it was like to settle during the rise of the smelting and mining industries or the gold rush era to farm or ranch for the first time to struggle with unfamiliar neighbors food and water shortages crop failure or simply the intransigent land and unpredictable weather Together these narratives historically and geographically framed by Lee Schweninger s detailed introduction create a vibrant picture of women s experiences in the pioneering of the American West      Nebraska History Addison Erwin Sheldon,James Lee Sellers,James C. Olson,1929      The Colorado Magazine ,1929      Firearms, Traps, and Tools of the Mountain Men Carl P. Russell,2010-05-26 This classic scholarly history of the fur trappers and traders of the early nineteenth century focuses on the devices that enabled the opening of the untracked American west Sprinkled with interesting facts and old western lore this guide to traps and tools is also a lively history The era of the mountain man is distinct in American history and Russell s exhaustive coverage on the guns traps knives axes and other iron tools of this era along with meticulous appendices is astonishing The result of thirty five years of painstaking research this is the definitive guide to the tools of the mountain men

The Age of Charisma Taso Lagos,2023-11-25 Charisma encompasses power popularity and influence Yet behind the curtain complexity chaos and insecurity lurk Examining the lives of charismatic personalities in a variety of fields religion entertainment business sects etc a picture emerges of distorted unfulfilled souls yearning for the limelight by an inescapable force they cannot understand yet which fuels their very existence The Age of Charisma Understanding the Charismatic Personality examines personalities from their earliest upbringings to their often tragic end examining the similarities that brings the charismatic to the glowing stage of fame that only temporarily assuages wounds from unhappy childhoods The charismatic personality has always been part of human history but they shine brighter today thanks in part to our media dominated landscape and the growing reliance on visual rather than written communication Ours is a golden time for such enigmatic personalities their social influence and idolatry have never been greater This book is written for scholars instructors and researchers broadly interested in charisma as a social phenomenon and as the product of an expansive reality dominated by screens      Vanguards of the Frontier Everett Newfon Dick,1941-01-01 Faith is neither static nor instantaneous It is not something we stumble upon and instantly understand Neither is it a monolithic one dimensional singular entity that has but one face one color one fragrance It is many faceted multi dimensional and appears differently depending on one's angle to the Sun In Finding Faith in Slow Motion Damon Gray examines faith from myriad angles and through gut wrenching life experiences as he asks regarding faith What is that stuff Spanning the emotional gamut from laughter to tears Gray challenges us to define our faith and redefine it to look at it from a multitude of perspectives and define it again The writing is intentionally evocative and playful offering the reader the ability to identify with Gray as he wrestles with the weighty subject matter of finding faith

Ghosts of the Last Best Place Ellen Baumler, 2016-10-10 With a ghostly twist on history Baumler captures Montana's cultural heritage and brings the state's supernatural past to life Humanities Montana Montana's past embodies the rough unforgiving and often vicious nature of the old Wild West Unscrupulous gold camps and railroad expansion attracted the good bad and ugly from all across the Union and as far as China Many a soul shed blood under the Big Sky leaving restless spirits to linger Discover the famous cowboy artist who refuses to leave his Missoula home Exhume the truth behind Stormy Butte investigate the mystery at Brush Lake and become enraptured with the firsthand account of a Browning rancher's attempts at reconciliation with the ghost of a murdered Chinese rail laborer Historian and award winning author Ellen Baumler presents this collection of Last Best Place hauntings Ellen Baumler explores hauntings across the state with the suspenseful voice of a campfire storyteller Missoula Independent Baumler an interpretive historian with the Montana Historical Society takes you to some of Montana's most spiritually charged spaces in her fifth book of ghost stories Independent Record Ellen Baumler's books are sure to put you in the perfect mood to enjoy all of the Halloweeny history Southwest Montana has to offer Visit Southwest Montana

The Powell Expedition Don Lago, 2017-11-15 John Wesley Powell's 1869 expedition down the Green and Colorado Rivers and through the Grand Canyon continues to be one of the most celebrated adventures in American history ranking with the Lewis and Clark expedition and the Apollo landings on the moon For nearly twenty years Lago has researched the Powell expedition from new angles traveled to thirteen states and looked into archives and other sources no one else has searched He has come up with many important new documents that change and expand our basic understanding of the expedition by looking into Powell's crewmembers some of whom have been almost entirely ignored by Powell historians Historians tended to assume that Powell was the whole story and that his crewmembers were irrelevant More seriously because several crew members made critical comments about Powell and his leadership historians who admired Powell were eager to ignore and discredit them Lago offers a feast of new and important material about the river trip and it will significantly rewrite the story of Powell's famous expedition This book is not only a major work on the Powell expedition but on the history of American exploration of the West

Guns on the Early Frontiers Carl P. Russell, 2012-03-08 DIV Thoroughly documented reference identifies guns used in America during eastern settlement and westward expansion The highly readable survey describes those who used and sold weapons as well as those who made them 58 rare illustrations div At Sword's Point William P. MacKinnon, 2008 Drawing on author editor William P MacKinnon s half century of research and a wealth of carefully selected new material At Sword s Point presents the first full history of the conflict through the voices of participants leaders soldiers and civilians
