M. Hamburg, Randall A. Poole, 2010-04-22 The great age of Russian philosophy spans the century between 1830 and 1930 from the famous Slavophile Westernizer controversy of the 1830s and 1840s through the Silver Age of Russian culture at the beginning of the twentieth century to the formation of a Russian philosophical emigration in the wake of the Russian Revolution This volume is a major history and interpretation of Russian philosophy in this period Eighteen chapters plus a substantial introduction and afterword discuss Russian philosophy's main figures schools and controversies while simultaneously pursuing a common central theme the development of a distinctive Russian tradition of philosophical humanism focused on the defence of human dignity As this volume shows the century long debate over the meaning and grounds of human dignity freedom and the just society involved thinkers of all backgrounds and positions transcending easy classification as religious or secular The debate still resonates strongly today Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought Teresa Obolovitch, 2019 Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought provides a comprehensive analysis of the relationship between science and faith in Russian religious thought Teresa Obolovitch offers a synthetic approach on the development of the problem throughout the whole history of Russian thought starting from the medieval period and arriving in contemporary times She considers the relationship between science and religion in the eighteenth century the so called academic philosophy of the 19th and 20th century the thought of Peter Chaadaev the Slavophiles and in the most influential literature figures such as Fedor Dostoevsky and Lev Tolstoy The volume also analyses two channels of the formation of philosophy in the context of the relationship between theology and science in Russia The first is connected with the attempt to rationalize the truths of faith and is exemplified by Vladimir Soloviev and Nikolai Lossky the second with the apophatic tradition is presented by Pavel Florensky and Semen Frank The book then describes the relation to scientific knowledge in the thought of Lev Shestov Nikolai Berdyaev Sergius Bulgakov and Alexei Losev as well as the original project of Russian Cosmism on the examples of Nikolai Fedorov Konstantin Tsiolkovsky and Vladimir Vernadsky Obolevitch presents the current state of the discussion on this topic by paying attention to the Neopatristic synthesis Fr Georges Florovsky and his followers and offers the brief comparative analyse of the relationship between science and religion from the Western and Russian perspectives Israel Yearbook on Human Rights, Volume 26 (1996) Yoram Dinstein, Fania Domb, 2020-10-26 The Israel Yearbook on Human Rights an annual published under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of Tel Aviv University since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in Israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the State of Israel and the Jewish people The Yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to Israel and the Administered Areas which are not otherwise available in English including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations Volume 26 contains amongst others articles on The Essence of Democracy Democracy in International Relations The Threats to Democracy and Democracy in Israel and the Palestinian Authority Healing Humanity Frederica Mathewes-Green, Rod Dreher, 2020-10-01 Western societies today are coming unmoored in the face of an earth shaking ethical and cultural paradigm shift At its core is the question of what it means to be human and how we are meant to live The old answers are no longer accepted a dizzying array of options are offered in their stead Underpinning this smorgasbord of lifestyles is a thicket of unquestioned assumptions such as the separation of gender from biological sex which not so long ago would have been universally rejected as radical notions In the spring of 2019 a group of Orthodox Christian scholars drawn from a wide variety of academic disciplines met together to offer responses to the moral crisis our generation faces elaborating upon its various forms and facilitating a fuller understanding of some of its theological and philosophical foundations In doing so they offer support to all those who question the claims that are so forcefully insisted upon today a clarity that will aid them in standing up and resisting trends that have already shown to be the cause of great suffering and unhappiness Among the contributors to this volume are NY Times bestselling author Rod Dreher Frederica Mathewes Green Dr David Bradshaw Fr Chad Hatfield and Fr Peter Heers Collectively these scholars remind us that it is only through our participation in the life of Christ God who became man that we can find the healing of our humanity through the restoration in us of His image in which we were formed at the beginning of time Russian Religious Thought Judith Deutsch
