Equity and Mercy included in this collection is the philosophical starting point of this debate and Bernhard Schlink's novel The Reader a novel exploring the tension between judging and understanding among other things is used as a case study by most contributors. Some contributors situated at one end of the spectrum of views represented in this collection argue for the wholesale elimination of our practices of retribution in the light of the tension between judging and understanding while contributors on the other side of the spectrum argue that the tension does not actually exist. A whole array of intermediate positions including Nussbaum's are represented. This anthology is comprised of nearly all specially commissioned essays bringing together work dealing with the moral, metaphysical, epistemological and phenomenological issues required for properly understanding whether in fact there is a tension between judging and understanding and what the moral and legal implications may be of accepting or rejecting this tension.

The Broadview Anthology of British Literature: Volume 1: The Medieval Period - Second Edition Joseph Black, Leonard Connolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J. McGann, Anne Lake Prescott, Barry V. Qualls, Claire Waters, 2009-08-21. In all six of its volumes The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light. Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship, the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser known writers. The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race, gender, class and sexual orientation. It includes comprehensive introductions to each period providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background. It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors, extensive explanatory annotations throughout and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials offering additional perspectives both on individual texts and on larger social and cultural developments. Innovative, authoritative and comprehensive, The Broadview Anthology of British Literature embodies a consistently fresh approach to the study of literature and literary history. The second edition of volume one of The Broadview Anthology of British Literature includes considerably more of Langland's Piers Plowman than appears in the first edition and includes for the first time the work of John Gower. Also new to the bound book component of the anthology is the York Crucifixion Play and additional work by Chaucer. With this volume as with the others, material continues to be added on an ongoing basis to the website component of the anthology.

The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 2: The Renaissance and the Early Seventeenth Century - Third Edition Joseph Black, Leonard Connolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J. McGann, Anne Lake Prescott, Barry V. Qualls, Claire Waters, 2016-03-14. In all six of its volumes The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light. Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship, the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser known writers. The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race, gender, class and sexual orientation. It includes comprehensive introductions to each period providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background. It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors, extensive explanatory annotations, and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials. Innovative, authoritative, and comprehensive, The Broadview Anthology of British Literature has established itself as a leader in the field. The full anthology comprises six bound volumes together with an extensive website component; the latter has been edited, annotated, and designed according to the same high standards as the bound book component of the anthology and is accessible by using the passcode obtained with the purchase of one or more of the bound volumes. For the third edition of this volume, a considerable number of changes have been made. Newly prepared, for example, is a substantial selection from Baldassare Castiglione's The Courtier, presented in Thomas Hoby's influential early modern English translation. Thomas Kyd's The Spanish Tragedy is another major addition. Also new to the anthology are excerpts from Thomas Dekker's plague pamphlets. We have considerably expanded our representation of Elizabeth I's writings and speeches, as well as providing several more cantos from Edmund Spenser's Faerie Queene and adding selections from Sir Philip Sidney's Arcadia. We have broadened our coverage too to include substantial selections of Irish, Gaelic, Scottish, and Welsh literature. Perhaps most notable of the numerous authors in this section are two extraordinary Welsh poets, Dafydd ap Gwilym and Gwerful Mechain. Mary Sidney Herbert's writings now appear in the bound book instead of on the companion website. Margaret Cavendish, previously included in volume 3 of the full anthology, will now also be included in this volume; we have added a number of her poems with an emphasis on those with scientific themes. The edition features two new Contexts sections: a sampling of Tudor and Stuart Humor and a section on Levellers, Diggers, Ranters, and Covenanters. New materials on emblem books and on manuscript culture have also been added to the Culture A Portfolio contexts section. There are many additions to the website component as well, including Thomas Deloney's Jack of Newbury, also published as a stand-alone BABL edition. We are also expanding our online selection of transatlantic material with the inclusion of writings by John Smith, William Bradford, and Anne Bradstreet.

The Broadview Anthology of British Literature: Concise Volume B – Third Edition Joseph Black et al., 2021-08-03

The two-volume Broadview Anthology of British Literature Concise Edition provides an attractive alternative to the full six-volume anthology. Though much more compact, the Concise Edition nevertheless provides substantial choice, offering both a strong selection of canonical authors and a sampling of lesser-known works. With an unparalleled selection of illustrations and of contextual materials, accessible and engaging introductions, and full explanatory annotations, these volumes provide concise yet extraordinarily wide-ranging coverage for British Literature survey courses. New to this volume are Samuel Beckett's Endgame and Robert Louis Stevenson's Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde; new authors include Dorothy Wordsworth, John Clare, Tomson Highway, Derek Walcott, and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie. The third edition now also offers substantially expanded representation of Irish, Scottish, and Welsh literatures, as well as contextual materials on Gothic literature, Modernism, and World War II. Material that no longer appears in the bound book may in most cases be found on the companion website many larger works are also available in separate volumes that may at the instructor's request be bundled together with the anthology at no extra cost to the student

Features New to the Third Edition New longer texts including Dickens's performance reading of David Copperfield Gaskell's The Manchester Marriage Stevenson's Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Beckett's Endgame New short selections from longer works including Eliot's Middlesmarch Shelley's Frankenstein Barrett Browning's Aurora Leigh and Tennyson's In Memoriam A H H New bound book author entries for Dorothy Wordsworth John Clare Emily Brontë Thomas de Quincey Walter Pater Isaac Rosenberg Tomson Highway Derek Walcott Jeanette Winterson and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie New selections representing Literary Currents in Ireland Scotland and Wales in the Long Nineteenth Century New Contexts section on Gothic Literature including materials by Horace Walpole Ann Radcliffe and Jane Austen Literature Politics and Cultural Identity section includes numerous new authors and pieces including work by Sorely MacLean James Kelman Gillian Clarke Kamau Brathwaite Kim Moore and Warsan Shire
