The Spirit of the Game Paul Emory Putz,Assistant Director Truett Seminary's Faith & Sports Institute Paul Emory Putz,2024-10-02 Displays of religious faith have become commonplace on America s baseball diamonds basketball courts football fields and beyond How did religion become so entwined with big time sports in America The Spirit of the Game provides the answer to this question by offering a sweeping history of the Christian athlete movement in the United States and its impact on American religion and the religion of sports

Official Handbook of the Public Athletic League, Baltimore, Md. ... Public Athletic League, Baltimore, 1921

An Unholy Alliance Robert J. Higgs, Michael Braswell, 2004

An Unholy Alliance offers a dissenting view to the claim by a growing number of scholars that Sports are a new religion The last few years have seen a spate of books that might be classified by a genre called Sports Apologetics that is arguments defending or celebrating in one way or another the familiar and ongoing alliance in America between sports and religion Recently claims have been made by scholars that sports are an authentic religion in and of themselves They make this startling assertion not by showing connections with the teachings of Buddha Jesus Mohammed or Moses but by parallels between the rites of modern games and those of preliterate man that were religious in nature because they were designed to propitiate powers and to ward off evil for the tribes employing them In this evocative book Higgs and Braswell suggest that while sports may often be good things they are not inherently divine They do not focus on wide spread abuse in sports as evidence for their counterargument Rather they question the use of mythological parallels from prehistory as justification for viewing sports as a religion

Playing for God Annie Blazer, 2015-07-24

When sports ministry first emerged in the 1950s and 1960s its founders imagined male celebrity athletes as powerful salespeople who could deliver a message of Christian strength If athletes can endorse shaving cream razor blades and cigarettes surely they can endorse the Lord too reasoned Fellowship of Christian Athletes founder Don McClanen But combining evangelicalism and sport did much more than serve as an advertisement for religion it gave athletes the opportunity to think about the embodied experiences of sport as a way to experience intimate connection with the divine As sports ministry developed it focused on individual religious experiences and downplayed celebrity sales power opening the door for female Christian athletes to join and eventually dominate sports ministry Today women are the majority of participants in sports ministry in the United States In Playing for God Annie Blazer offers an exploration of the history and religious lives of Christian athletes showing that evangelical engagement with popular culture can carry unintended consequences When sport became an avenue for embodied worship it forced a reckoning with evangelical teachings about the body Female Christian athletes increasingly turned to their own bodies to understand their religious identity and in so doing came to question evangelical mainstays on gender and sexuality What was once a male dominated masculinist project of sports engagement became a female dominated movement that challenged evangelical ideas on femininity marriage hierarchy and the sinfulness of homosexuality Though evangelicalism has not changed sporting culture for those involved in sports ministry sport has changed evangelicalism

Early Christian Witnesses, 2022-11-20 The articles and talks included in this collection cover fifty years of theological engagement the primary focus being on education for ministry in Australia and abroad Despite the diversity of topics such as hermeneutics New Testament theology preaching ecumenical relations and early church history there is a connecting concern to listen to the unique voices of early Christian witnesses as foundational for the faith and the apostolic claims of the church in its present day witness The publication of these essays has been suggested for some time Despite my reluctance to reissue articles written over a period of more than five decades I have relented in the hope that there will be enough to engage the interest of a variety of readers and not only former students in seminaries and theological colleges in Australia and various places overseas Included here are mainly articles written specifically for publication in journals but also lectures and talks to various groups of clergy lay people and theological students Of prime concern has always been the explication of the

Christian faith according to its earliest witnesses in the early church of apostles and martyrs Faith remains attested and lived approved not proven
