Gregory, Marshall W. Gregory, Wayne C. Booth, 1992 Teaching writing critical thinking and argument this popular reader features more than 100 thought provoking selections written by some of history's classic thinkers      The Harper & Row Reader Wayne C. Booth, Marshall W. Gregory, 1988      Teaching Excellence in Higher Education Marshall Gregory, Melissa Valiska Gregory, 2013-12-11 Marshall Gregory argues that teachers at the university and high school levels can achieve teaching excellence by grounding their teaching in pedagogical theory that takes into account students' abilities and the ultimate goals of teaching to develop students' capacities for thought reflection questioning and engagement to their fullest extent      Design Discourse David Franke, Alex Reid, 2010-10-06 Design Discourse Composing and Revising Programs in Professional and Technical Writing addresses the complexities of developing professional and technical writing programs The essays in the collection offer reflections on efforts to bridge two cultures what the editors characterize as the art and science of writing often by addressing explicitly the tensions between them Design Discourse offers insights into the high stakes decisions made by program designers as they seek to function at the intersection of the practical and the abstract the human and the technical

WPA, Writing Program Administration, 1991      The Harper and Row Reader Booth, Gregory, 1997-08      College Success Reader Instructor's Resource Manual Robert Holkeboer, 1998-05      Making Meaning in the Response-based Classroom Margaret Hunsberger, George Donald Labercane, 2002 Offers readers a fresh perspective on reader response theory and includes many teaching strategies and attention to the issues and concerns this approach raises for thoughtful teachers in grades 1-12 Coverage includes teaching writing teaching poetry creating an interpretive classroom community ESL and diversity as well as including media in classroom practice Readers will receive helpful teaching suggestions that offer a strong link between theory and practice as well as important descriptions of the pitfalls that arise in reader response work in classrooms Based on their practical experience the authors offer suggestions on how to deal with those difficulties Language Arts Educators in grades 1-12      Shaped by Stories Marshall W. Gregory, 2009 In his latest book Marshall Gregory begins with the premise that our lives are saturated with stories ranging from magazines books films television and blogs to the words spoken by politicians pastors and teachers He then explores the ethical implication of this nearly universal human obsession with narratives Through careful readings of Katherine Anne Porter's The Graveyard Book s The Graveyard Book s The Catbird Seat as well as David Copperfield and Wuthering Heights Gregory asks and answers the question How do the stories we absorb in our daily lives influence the kinds of persons we turn out to be Shaped by Stories weaves its own compelling story about the pervasive ethical effects of reading narrative with Marshall Gregory serving as a highly engaging and ethically admirable narrator a very model of good company James Phelan Distinguished University Professor of English Ohio State University Marshall Gregory's Shaped by Stories brings ethical criticism to the level of felt experience Witty and passionate full of personal reflections and sharp examples this book will help anyone who has been drawn to the mysterious power of stories to think more carefully about the connections between narrative art and human ethos Gregory reminds us that the urgency of our need for stories is tied permanently to the need to exercise judgment belief and empathy in the process of becoming who we are Annette Federico James Madison University From a lifetime of reflecting on the ethics of fiction Marshall Gregory has given us an elegant analysis of the power of stories to instruct and delight No one interested in storytelling will want to be without this incisive guide to both the myriad ways that stories shape our lives and the strategies writers use to affect our responses Both the theoretical and practical halves of Shaped by Stories have clarity and eloquence Robert D Denham Fishwick Professor of English Emeritus Roanoke College

Rhetoric and Pluralism Frederick J. Antczak, 1995 The first of five groups of essays situates Booth within contemporary controversies and within the life experiences and roles where such controversies matter most for human character Booth's work as a literary critic shapes the second section which focuses on what the authors see as Booth's key ethical questions about literature and literary criticism The third section of essays is concerned with the implications of Booth's writing particularly in its connection with politics Booth's influence in fields other than literary studies provides the theme for the fourth section The final section explores the problematic but promising relation among assent ethics and pluralism

Journal of Developmental Education, 1988 Orientation to College Jane Shipton, Sharon Villines, 1996 In a departure from typical college orientation texts this rich collection of readings featuring leaders in education government and industry will give students an understanding of what learning means at the college level and how it will benefit them in their personal and professional life The book addresses a broad variety of issues related to growing as a person developing critical thinking abilities understanding the role of the liberal arts in education and preparing for the demanding and ever changing workplace
