Christine Pae, 2023-11-23 Despite prolific feminist voices in Christian ethics transnational perspectives are still underdeveloped Similarly secular transnational feminist scholarship often overlooks religious faith rituals and spirituality crucial to many women's liberation movements across the globe This book aims to fill these gaps in Christian and secular feminist scholarships by constructing a transnational feminist theo ethics Furthermore by bringing the theological and the transnational together the book offers an alternative tool in analyzing social identities beyond intersectionality i.e. interstitial approach and interstitial integrity and thus renews feminist theological understandings especially of time memories and healing beyond linear approaches A renewed analytical tool would help the readers critically reinterrogate the global power structure buttressed by empire militarized capitalism and heteropatriarchal religious ideologies at the cost of raced sexed and classed bodies At the same time the book would create space where readers create and recreate theo ethical visions for global peace and justice constructed upon transnational feminist praxis of solidarity and spiritual activism Case studies offer concrete sites to inform readers about how to use transnational feminist theories at a micro and macropolitical levels and produce transnational feminist knowledge of God spiritual activism and solidarity This book is written for graduate and advanced undergraduate students in religion gender studies and Asian American studies to critically engage in the political

the theological and the spiritual from transnational perspectives not as observers but as active participants in global politics
