A tale* James Fenimore Cooper, 1883      The Headsman; Or, The Abbaye Des Vignerons. A Tale, Volume 1 ( Novel ) James Fenimore Cooper, 2016-07-05

The Headsman The Abbaye des Vignerons is an 1833 novel by James Fenimore Cooper set in Switzerland The novel was inspired by one of Cooper's trips during his European travels in 1832 The novel is one of three of Cooper's European novels following The Bravo and The Heidenmauer all of which use the European setting to deal with socio political contrast with American institutions Themes The novel explores a number of themes related to how society structures itself including justice authority friendship parental relationships love and marriage Critical reception The novel is typically described for its socio political commentary but critics have argued the importance of treating the novel as part of Cooper's deliberate artistry Constance Ayers Denne describes this artistry as largely reflected in the novel's powerful structure and successful thematic treatment Many critics who have read the novel for socio political themes were unsatisfied with its ending Critic Thomas Palfrey argues that the novel has structural and thematic similarities to Balzac's works such as Jesus Christ in Flanders James Fenimore Cooper September 15 1789 September 15 1851 was a prolific and popular American writer of the early 19th century His historical romances of frontier and Indian life in the early American days created a unique form of American literature He lived most of his life in Cooperstown New York which was founded by his father William on property that he owned Cooper was a lifelong member of the Episcopal Church and in his later years contributed generously to it He attended Yale University for three years where he was a member of the Linonian Society but was expelled for misbehavior Before embarking on his career as a writer he served in the U S Navy as a Midshipman which greatly influenced many of his novels and other writings The novel that launched his career was The Spy a tale about counterespionage set during the Revolutionary War and published in 1821 He also wrote numerous sea stories and his best known works are five historical novels of the frontier period known as the Leatherstocking Tales Among naval historians Cooper's works on the early U S Navy have been well received but they were sometimes criticized by his contemporaries Among his most famous works is the Romantic novel The Last of the Mohicans often regarded as his masterpiece

The Headsman : Or, the Abbaye Des Vignerons. NOVEL By: James Fenimore Cooper(Original Classics) James Fenimore Cooper,2016-06-24 The Headsman The Abbaye des Vignerons is an 1833 novel by James Fenimore Cooper set in Switzerland The novel was inspired by one of Cooper's trips during his European travels in 1832 The novel is one of three of Cooper's European novels following The Bravo and The Heidenmauer all of which use the European setting to deal with socio political contrast with American institutions The novel explores a number of themes related to how society structures itself including justice authority friendship parental relationships love and marriage

The Headsman (Illustrated) James Fenimore Cooper,2014-05-08 This opportunity to make a political confession of faith reflected the political turn he already had taken in his fiction having attacked European anti republicanism in The Bravo 1831 Cooper continued this political course in The Heidenmauer 1832 and The Headsman or the Abbaye of Vigneron 1833 The Bravo depicted Venice as a place where a ruthless oligarchy lurks behind the mask of the serene republic All were widely read on both sides of the Atlantic though The Bravo was a critical failure in the United States

The Headsman (Annotated) James Fenimore Cooper,2016-07-02 On the quay in Geneva impatient to set sail for Vevey before the fickle winds on Lake Lemman lose their force Baptiste the greedy owner of the new but overloaded Winkelried is thrice delayed Mob action of the passengers led by a leather lunged Neapolitan street juggler opposes the rumored embarkation of the abhorred Balthazar holder of the hereditary post of headsman or official executioner of the canton of Berne During this protest a furious battle also occurs between two passengers dogs Uberto a St Bernard accompanying a cheerful Augustine monk and Nettuno a Newfoundland dog attached to a hardy Italian erstwhile seaman courageous enough to halt the fight The passengers anxiety concerning their safe passage is relieved by Baptiste's agreeing to submit all passengers to the scrutiny both of the Genevese port official and of a panel selected from among the passengers The panel members selected have their own credentials cleared Pippo the Neapolitan rabble rouser an unnamed Westphalian student on literary pilgrimage to Rome and the pompous prosperous Bernese burgher Nicklaus Wagner owner of much of the cargo aboard the Winkelried Conrad an openly hypocritical pilgrim en route to Rome is passed and unasked assumes a fourth screening post Maso owner of the Newfoundland dog claims his papers are already aboard ship and by sheer effrontery passes both the official and the panel he and the faithful Nettuno board the vessel
