IJER Vol 10-N4 International Journal of Educational Reform, 2001-05-09 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world

The Principal Challenge Marc S. Tucker, Judy B. Coddling, 2003-02-03 A Blueprint for Developing Tomorrow's School Leaders Based on two years of research supported by Carnegie Corporation of New York The Broad Foundation and the New Schools Venture Fund The Principal Challenge focuses directly on the causes and cures of the crisis in school leadership Marc Tucker Judy Coddling and a stellar list of experts from the United States and abroad paint a revealing portrait of what it means to be a principal now how and why most graduate schools of education have failed to provide the training principals need what the military and business sectors do to create and support their leaders and managers what the state of the art in professional training looks like what other nations are doing to address this problem and how to apply the very best practices in the world to solve the crisis in school leadership This book is honest and hard hitting And it offers realistic solutions Based on the thorough analysis provided by the chapter authors the editors of The Principal Challenge offer an imaginative proposal for a new kind of institution that will train school principals to be turn around artists Drawing on the new forms of executive development programs in our business schools they propose a similar program for school principals The approach involves a close collaboration between the new institution and entire school districts combining face to face instruction with web based delivery The innovative curriculum they describe like the best approaches in business and industry uses carefully developed cases simulations games action projects seminars and journaling The editors offer a clear conception of what it might mean to be an instructional leader a way of thinking about what it takes for a principal to be a strategic thinker an approach that principals can use to take advantage of the best current thinking on knowledge management and professional development a conception of the principal as school designer an emphasis on the use of data to drive planning and a host of tested ideas that principals can use to lead their schools to better results

Sabina, 2023-01-01 Across the United States and globally school districts are regularly facing a shortage of both willing and highly qualified candidates to assume positions as school leaders A number of factors have contributed to this shortage including but not limited to 1 retiring baby boomers leaving P 12 schools ex Aaronson Carlson 2004 Parylo Wiedmer 2015 2 shifting demographics and population changes across the United States workforce and schools ex Betts Urias Brimley Garfield Brown 2016 Miller Mordechay Lortie 2009 Norton 2002 Yan 2019 and 4 the shift of schools to 21st Century Learning centers which have changed the role of school administrators ex Crow Hausman Huber 2014 According to the National Bureau of Labor Statistics the current demand for school principals continues to increase Occupational Outlook Handbook 2019 and will accelerate in the coming 10 20 years Because of the high need for school administrators many schools and school districts are creating unique targeted and innovative programs to find principals who can meet the changing needs in our school system The Role of the School Principal Patrick J. Renihan, Susan

Phillips, Ontario. Ministry of Education, Helen Raham, Society for the Advancement of Excellence in Education, 2006 How School Leaders Contribute to Student Success Kenneth Leithwood, Jingping Sun, Katina Pollock, 2017-03-15 While considerable evidence indicates that school leaders are able to make important contributions to the success of their students much less is known about how such contributions are made This book provides a comprehensive account of research aimed at filling this gap in our knowledge along with guidelines about how school leaders might use this knowledge for their own school improvement work Leadership practices known to be effective for improving student success are outlined in the first section of the book while the remaining sections identify four paths along which the influence of those practices flow to exercise an influence on student success Each of the Rational Emotional Organizational and Family paths are populated by conditions or variables known to have relatively direct effects on student success and also open to influence by effective leadership practices While the Four Path framework narrows the attention of school leaders to a still considerable number conditions known to contribute to student success it leaves school leaders the autonomy to select for improvement efforts the sub set of conditions that make the most sense in their own local circumstances The approach to leadership described in this book provides evidence based guidance on what to lead and flexibility on how to lead for purposes of improving student learning The Engineer ,2002
