The Dance of Rituals Lily Cooper, 2024-10-22 The Dance of Rituals Buddhism and the Connection with the Divine Buddhist Rituals is a mysterious invitation to explore the secrets of the spirit It is not merely about repeated gestures or ancient traditions but about secret doors that once opened reveal a dimension where the sacred and the everyday dance in eternal communion Each ritual described is not just an act but a path to awakening what is most authentic and dormant in the human soul As you delve into the practices unveiled here you are not just reading about Buddhism you are called to feel the echo of ancient chants to visualize offerings dissipating as symbols of detachment and to touch the invisible that inhabits each breath The descriptions evoke rituals where the toll of a bell can resonate through time and the aroma of incense not only perfumes the air but transforms the surrounding energy dissolving the veil between the material and the immaterial The Theravada Mahayana and Vajrayana traditions emerge from the pages like trails winding up the mountain of the spirit each offering unique ways to reach the essential and the eternal The practice is presented not as an end in itself but as a map of forgotten paths leading the practitioner to break free from illusions and glimpse the essence of all things In this work rituals are instruments to transcend the ordinary capable of awakening an ancient echo in the reader's heart reminding them that the search for meaning is not distant but latent in the present moment Buddhist Rituals is not just a book it is a key for those who dare to explore the unknown and align themselves with the mysteries that permeate life      The Palgrave Handbook of Anthropological Ritual Studies Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew J. Strathern, 2021-08-24 Ritual Studies have achieved prominence since the 1980s when interest in ritual as an object of inquiry was established bridging over a number of humanities and social science disciplines Both connected with religious studies and independent of it overlapping with social and cultural anthropology but also with history related to science and health practices and ranging across the life course to education

Ritual Studies has come to encompass studies of change and dynamism in social life. Rituals are determinate in form but not static. They enunciate distinctive social values within specific contexts that frame them and they relate to the wider concerns and issues of their practitioners. Due to this broad and wide ranging scope it is often difficult to find a single resource on Ritual Studies and even more so to find one which moves beyond the beginnings of anthropological theorizing to grapple with the present day contexts of ritual. Bringing together recent ethnographies of ritual practice and ritualization from across the globe this Handbook provides case study of ritual in the light of Emotion and Cognition Identity Religious Power Performance and Literature Ecology and Ecological Disaster Media and other topics. While each chapter provides a deep ethnography of a specific society ritual or ritualized practice each also engages with current theoretical and substantive approaches to the relevant topic. The scholars collected here provide original synoptic and indicative pieces as guideposts and pathways through the complex varied and cross disciplinary and vast landscape of scholarship that constitutes Ritual Studies today and points to developments in the future.

Rituals and Ceremonies in Popular Culture Ray Broadus Browne, 1980. This collection of essays examines various rituals and ceremonies in American popular culture including architecture religion television viewing humor eating and dancing.

Art, Religion, and Politics in Medieval China Qiang Ning, 2004-01-01. The cave temple complex popularly known as the Dunhuang caves is the world's largest extant repository of Tang Buddhist art. Among the best preserved of the Dunhuang caves is the Zhai Family Cave built in 642. It is this remarkable cave temple that forms the focus of Ning Qiang's cross disciplinary exploration of the interrelationship of art religion and politics during the Tang. In his careful examination of the paintings and sculptures found there the author combines the historical study of pictures with the pictorial study of history. By employing this two fold approach he is able to refer to textual evidence in interpreting the formal features of the cave temple paintings and to employ visual details to fill in the historical gaps inevitably left by text oriented scholars. The result is a comprehensive analysis of the visual culture of the period and a vivid description of social life in medieval China and remained hidden until the early 1940s. Once exposed the early artwork appeared fresh and colorful in comparison with other Tang paintings at Dunhuang. The relatively fine condition of the Zhai Family Cave is crucial to our understanding of the original pictorial program found there and offers a unique opportunity to investigate the visual details of the original paintings and sculptures in the cave. At the same time the remaining traces of reconstruction and redecoration provide a new perspective on how for over three centuries a wealthy Chinese clan used its familial cave as a political showcase.

Art Religion and Politics in Medieval China: The Dunhuang Cave of the Zhai Family is an in depth study on the meaning and function of an exemplary Tang memorial cave and an important contribution to studies of Chinese religion politics sociology literature and folklore as well as to Chinese art history.

Ma, 2010-04-01 What would happen when the Christian message is introduced to various groups of people? How would their contexts and worldviews influence their responses to the message? To this age-old missiological question, the study takes the readers to a narrowed and concerted question: What is the effect of Pentecostal messages on animistic people or in other words, What are the results when the Holy Spirit meets the spirits of the tribal people? Julie Ma chose the Kankanaey tribe in the northern Philippines to prove that the Pentecostal type of Christian has invited a very positive response from the Kankanaeys. She approaches the matter from historical, anthropological and theological perspectives. This may challenge the readers to look more closely at the phenomenal Pentecostal movement, especially with their potential for mission. She also urges her fellow Pentecostals to be more appreciative of their heritage and to fully appropriate it to reach the end of the earth. Traveling Spirit Masters Deborah Kapchan, 2023-09-05 A group of ritual musicians and former slaves brought from sub-Saharan Africa to Morocco, the Gnawa heal those they believe to be possessed using incense, music and trance. But their practice is hardly of only local interest; the Gnawa have long participated in the world music market through collaborations with African American jazz musicians and French recording artists. In this first book in English on Gnawa music and its global reach, author Deborah Kapchan explores how these collaborations transfigure racial and musical identities on both sides of the Atlantic. She also addresses how aesthetic styles associated with the sacred come to inhabit non sacred contexts and what new amalgams they produce. Her narrative details the fascinating intrinsic properties of trance including details of enactment, the role of gesture and the body and the use of the senses and how they both construct authentic Gnawa identity and reconstruct historically determined relations of power. Traveling Spirit Masters is a captivating and elucidating demonstration of how and why trance and indeed all sacred music is fast becoming a transnational sensation.

The radical otherness that heals Alhena Caicedo Fernández, 2021-04-01. The Radical Otherness That Heals proposes an interesting theoretical advance in various schools of local and regional and national and transnational analysis. It is based on a multilocal ethnography and a detailed sociological and political reading of the interactions between institutions and social and cultural representations of otherness. The original theoretical proposal consists of reading the reconfiguration of shamanisms stemming from processes of ethnicization and patrimonialization and skillfully reconstructing the national ideological space and the most recent effects of multiculturalism through representations of otherness. Anne Marie Losonczy, Director of Studies at the Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes Paris. The concept of the yagecero field serves as the axis of this innovative research that intertwines a multi-sited ethnography with a biographical approach to the actors. An extensive review of the literature on indigenous shamanisms, their networks, national politics, inter-ethnic relations and representations of the radical alterity that heals makes it possible for the reader to draw near based on the close proximity of neo-shamanic practices to perceive the national and transnational influences that are an integral part of the ongoing dynamics of this phenomenon. The analysis of neo-shamanism and the practices of the taita yageceros in Colombia contributes to deepening current debates on contemporary shamanisms and the broader issue of new religiosities, the transformations of indigenous groups and their politics of identity. This book provides a valuable input to the characterization of New Age spirituality from its understanding as a localized practice. It opens a space to compare the aforementioned manifestations in Colombia with similar ones in different countries. Esther Jean Langdon, Professor at the Federal University of Santa Catarina, Brazil.

Salvation and Suicide David Chidester, 2018-11-01. An ambitious and courageous examination of the Jonestown cult viewed through the lens of theology. Journal of the American Academy of Religion re-issued in recognition of the 25th anniversary of the mass suicides at Jonestown, this revised edition of David Chidester's groundbreaking book features a new prologue that considers the meaning of the tragedy for a post-Waco, post-9/11 world. For Chidester, the murder-suicide of some 900 members of the Peoples Temple in Guyana recalls the American religious commitment to redemptive sacrifice which for Jim Jones meant saving his followers from the evils of capitalist society. Jonestown is ancient history, writes Chidester, but it does provide us with an opportunity to reflect upon the strangeness of familiar promises of redemption through sacrifice. His original conclusion that the Peoples Temple was a meaningful religious movement seems all the more prescient and astute today when fundamentalism has raised the troubling spectre of violence and suicide all over the world      Faith, Spirituality, and Praxis Peter White, 2024-12-30 African grassroots theologies and churches are expressions of the faith spirituality and praxis of African Christians who seek to articulate and live out their Christian identity and mission in their diverse and complex contexts These include African Initiated Churches black theology movements liberation theology movements and other forms of contextual and indigenous theologies and ecclesiologies that emerge from the experiences In exploring the dynamics in African Christianity and theologies the volume addresses the following questions How do African grassroots theologies and churches reflect and respond to the challenges and opportunities of their socio political economic cultural and religious contexts How do African grassroots theologies and churches engage with the historical and contemporary expressions of Christianity in Africa and beyond such as colonial and missionary Christianity ecumenical Christianity global Christianity and interreligious dialogue How do African grassroots theologies and churches develop and communicate their theological and ethical perspectives and practices on issues such as justice liberation reconciliation healing development ecology gender sexuality culture and spirituality How do African grassroots theologies and churches shape and challenge the forms and functions of the church in Africa such as worship leadership ministry mission evangelism discipleship fellowship and social action This volume is important for those studying African studies religious studies African theologies and African Christianity This is also an important book for those professionals working in interfaith dialogues missionary work and community development within African contexts
