Death, 'Deathlessness' and Existenz in Karl Jaspers' Philosophy Filiz Page, 2008-01-23 Karl Jaspers is one of the least understood and most neglected major philosophers of the twentieth century and yet his ideas particularly those concerned with death have immense contemporary relevance Filiz Peach provides a clear explanation of Jaspers philosophy of existence clarifying and reassessing the concept of death that is central to his thought For Jaspers a human being is not merely a physical entity but a being with a transcendent aspect and so in some sense deathless Peach explores this transcendent aspect of humanity and what it is to be deathless in Jaspersian terms This book is a major contribution to the scarce literature on Jaspers and will be valuable to student and academic alike The Oxford

Arthur Koestler Edward Saunders, 2017-03-15 Born in Budapest in 1905 Arthur Koestler was a pivotal European writer and intellectual who inspired provoked and intrigued in equal measure Koestler wrote enduring works of reportage and memoir but he is most famous for his political novel Darkness at Noon which received widespread international acclaim In Arthur Koestler Edward Saunders offers a fresh and clear eyed account of the life and work of an enigmatic challenging writer who continues to polarize opinion today Saunders sketches Koestler as a leading documentarian of some of the key moments in twentieth century European history showing the remarkable ways that he was able to stage himself as a witness to them Saunders explores Koestler's struggle with his Jewish identity outlines his ideas on the theory of science and the ways he tried to imagine the future of science and humankind and directly engages with the controversial claims of sexual violence that have emerged in the years following Koestler's suicide Differentiating the life Koestler led from the story he wanted to tell about it and various ways the public has influenced his reputation after his death this book offers a balanced portrait of a vibrant figure in twentieth century arts and letters

After the Fall Noemi Marin, 2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance

Christ and Modernity David J. Hawkin, 2010-10-30 In this re examination of the roots of the relationship between religion and science David Hawkin focuses on the concept of autonomy as he explores the question Is there continuity and compatibility between the autonomy that underlies Christian faith and the role of individual freedom in the technological age What makes this work particularly valuable is Professor Hawkin's review of the theological philosophical political psychological and sociological works that have formed our ideas of the nature of both Christianity and modernity Reimarus Strauss Schweitzer and Bultmann on the quest for the historical Jesus Bauer and Turner on Christian faith and practice Machiavelli Nietzsche Darwin Freud and Marx on our historicity Gogarten Cox and Bonhoeffer who affirm our autonomy in the technological process Ellul and George who deny it

Zeppelins, Arthur Koestler's Fiction and the Genre of the Novel Zénó Vernyik, 2021-09-17 Featuring a selection of brand new essays by a group of accomplished scholars Arthur Koestler's Fiction and the Genre of the Novel covers all of Koestler's novels published in his lifetime the first book to attempt this in English since Mark Levene's Arthur Koestler published thirty seven years ago The team of contributors with research backgrounds in history political science religious studies law linguistics and journalism besides literature offers a truly multidisciplinary take on how Koestler's novels utilize and at times transcend the genre of the novel and argues for their enduring relevance and appeal in the twenty first century inviting the reader to revisit and reassess them With the topics of Koestler's novels including terrorism massive migration espionage rape trauma war trauma the crisis of faith propaganda fake news and the role and responsibility of intellectuals in major international crises as the volume aims to show these texts are just as topical today as they were at the time of their publication

Encyclopedia of Trauma Charles R. Figley, 2012-06-19 Trauma is defined as a sudden potentially deadly experience often leaving lasting troubling memories Traumatology the study of trauma its effects and methods to modify effects is exploding in terms of published works and expanding in terms of scope Originally a narrow specialty within emergency medicine the field now extends to trauma psychology military psychiatry and behavioral health post traumatic stress and stress disorders trauma social work disaster mental health and most recently the subfield of history and trauma with sociohistorical examination of long term effects and meanings of major traumas experienced by whole communities and nations both natural Pompeii Hurricane Katrina and man made the Holocaust 9 11 One reason for this expansion involves important scientific breakthroughs in detecting the neurobiology of trauma that is connecting biology with human behavior which in turn is applicable to all fields involving human thought and response including but not limited to psychiatry medicine and the health sciences the social and behavioral sciences the humanities and law Researchers within these fields and more can contribute to a universal understanding of immediate and long term consequences both good and bad of trauma both for individuals and for broader communities and institutions Trauma encyclopedias published to date all center around psychological trauma and its emotional effects on the individual as a disabling or mental disorder requiring mental health services This element is vital and has benefited from scientific and professional breakthroughs in theory research and applications Our encyclopedia certainly will cover this central element but our expanded conceptualization will include the other disciplines and will move beyond the individual

Homo Poeticus Danilo Kis, 2003-11 Serbian writer Danilo Kis was preoccupied with man's dehumanization in a mechanized totalitarian world His dazzling fiction established him as one of the most artful and eloquent authors of postwar Europe In this first collection of his non fiction Kis displays the dynamic sensitive and insistently questioning approach to the dilemmas of the modern world that distinguishes his novels and stories and confirms his reputation as one of the most important voices of our time

Gandhi G. B. Singh, 2004-04 Among prominent leaders of the twentieth century perhaps no one is more highly regarded than Mahatma Gandhi He is revered by the vast majority of Hindus as the hero of Indian independence and many people throughout the world consider him to be a modern saint In this explosive intriguing and provocative investigation Colonel G B Singh charges that the popular image of Gandhi is highly misleading Despite his famous philosophy of nonviolent resistance satyagraha Colonel Singh's analysis of the evidence leads him to conclude that Gandhi's ideology was in fact rooted in racial animosity first against blacks in South Africa and later against whites in India The author also finds evidence of multiple cover ups designed to hide Gandhi's real history including even collusion to cover up the murder of an American This provocative thesis is sure to be controversial

Reality and Empathy Alex Comfort, 1984-06-30 Once in a century an overview shakes the mold of preconception and makes a world model fall into shape This is such a book absorbing provocative original skeptical and often very funny in spite of formidable scholarship The focus of the book is on the change in self perception which physics might bring about if it were made in some way empathically real to non physicists The common man s existential attitude is a product now of nineteenth century mechanistic models But in pursuing this the author lays out a comprehensive survey of impending changes in the philosophy of science and ranges through physics biology mathematics Jungian psychology and evolutionary theory turning also to look at other non Western scientific world models In the task of reshaping the world model of scientists and others only commitment to the discipline of science will do It can be combined with enough controlled lunacy to bring conventionally self evident ideas of reality into question in mathematics this has always been a winning mixture but it has to produce testable predictions What we are now looking at is the prospect of Jungian physics a physics model which also addresses the image forming mechanism and possibly even the non locality of mind The hard hat model of an objective reality has had to yield to a growing perception that the objective is in form at least a construct what we appear to see is a function of the manner of seeing hardly a new idea to Greek philosophy but with the awkward complication that the cogitating I arises from the structures which it sees and orders The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 1 Henry MacAdam,Duncan

Cooper,2020-11-13 Using previously unpublished correspondence and personal journal entries from screenwriter Abraham Polonsky neglected notices in Variety and other Hollywood trade publications and a wide range of published sources this narrative backstory of rival movie productions of The Gladiators vs Spartacus documents that intense competition with greater precision and clarity than any other existing account The key role that this little known chapter of Hollywood s blacklist history played in connection with Dalton Trumbo s successful effort to win screen credit for Spartacus is now for the first time available to film historians and lay readers A companion study Volume 2 is devoted to Abraham Polonsky s rediscovered screenplay Catalog of Copyright Entries. Critical Survey of Long Fiction Frank Northen Magill,1991 Fantasies of Salvation Vladimir Tismaneanu,2009-06-28 Eastern Europe has become an ideological battleground since the collapse of the Soviet Union with liberals and authoritarians struggling to seize the ground lost by Marxism In Fantasies of Salvation Vladimir Tismaneanu traces the intellectual history of this struggle and warns that authoritarian nationalists pose a serious threat to democratic forces A leading observer of the often baffling world of post Communist Europe Tismaneanu shows that extreme nationalistic and authoritarian thought has been influential in Eastern Europe for much of this century while liberalism has only shallow historical roots Despite democratic successes in places such as the Czech Republic and Poland he argues it would be a mistake for the West to assume that liberalism will always triumph He backs this argument by showing how nationalist intellectuals have encouraged ethnic hatred in such countries as Russia Romania and the former Yugoslavia by reviving patriotic myths of heroes scapegoats and historical injustices And he shows how enthusiastically these myths have been welcomed by people desperate for some form of salvation from political and economic uncertainty On a theoretical level

Tismaneanu challenges the common ideas that the ideological struggle is between right and left or between nationalists and internationalists. In a careful analysis of the conflict's ideological roots, he argues that it is more useful and historically accurate to view the struggle as between those who embrace the individualist traditions of the Enlightenment and those who reject them. Tismaneanu himself has been active in the intellectual battles he describes, particularly in his native Romania, and makes insightful use of interviews with key members of the dissident movements of the 1970s and 1980s. He offers original observations of countries from the Baltic to the Black Sea and expresses his ideas in a vivid and forceful style. Fantasies of Salvation is an indispensable book for both academic and nonacademic readers who wish to understand the forces shaping one of the world's most important and unpredictable regions. St. James Reference Guide to English Literature: 20th century fiction, 1985
