The Herb Gatherers:

The Herb Gatherers Elizabeth Harris, 1991-01 Gardening for Love Elizabeth Lawrence, 1988-06-27 Elizabeth Lawrence occupies a secure place in the pantheon of twentieth century gardening writers that includes Gertrude Jekyll and Vita Sackville West of Great Britain and Katherine S White of the United States Her books such as A Southern Garden 1942 and The Little Bulbs 1957 remain in print continuing to win praise from critics and to delight an ever widening circle of readers In Gardening for Love Lawrence reveals another world of garden writing the world of the rural women of the South with whom she corresponded extensively from the late 1950s into the mid 1970s in response to their advertisements for herbs and ornamental perennials in several market bulletins published by state departments of agriculture for the benefit of farmers It was Eudora Welty who awakened Elizabeth Lawrence's interest in this fascinating topic by putting her name on the mailing list of The Mississippi Market Bulletin a twice monthly collection of classified advertisements founded in 1928 and still published today Lawrence soon discovered market bulletins from the Carolinas and other Southern states as well as similar bulletins published privately in the North She began ordering plants from the bulletins and there ensued a lively exchange of letters with the women who sold them Gardening for Love is Lawrence's exploration of this little known side of American horticulture and her affectionate tribute to country people who shared her passion for plants Drawing on the letters she received sometimes a great many of them from the same persons over many years she delves into traditional plant lore herbal remedies odd and often highly poetic vernacular plant names peculiar to particular regions of the South and the herb collectors of the mountains of the Carolinas and Georgia She focuses primarily on the Southeast and the Deep South but her wide knowledge of both literature and botany gives Gardening for Love a dimension that transcends the category of regional writing Children of Grizzly Sadye Madalene Hageman, Alfred Oswald Shedd, 1927 A Garden of One's Own Barbara Scott, Bobby J. Ward, 2018-06-15 Gardening enthusiasts and those who love to read about gardening will be delighted by this new collection of Elizabeth Lawrence's work A gifted landscape architect and writer Lawrence 1904-85 chronicled her experiences with plants in a voice treasured for its distinctive blend of horticultural expertise and stylistic elegance Through her six books all still in print Lawrence continues to inspire an ever widening circle of dedicated readers everywhere Between 1932 and 1978 Lawrence wrote more than fifty articles for gardening magazines newsletters and plant society bulletins These writings uncovered in a seven year search and collected here for the first time offer further testament to her talent for conveying practical details in an engaging literate manner Treating such subjects as trees and shrubs bulbs perennials native plants even fellow gardeners this collection will be welcomed by the novice and knowledgeable gardener alike Elizabeth Lawrence a graduate of Barnard College was the first woman to receive a degree in landscape architecture from the North Carolina State College School of Design Her writings were informed and inspired by her own legendary gardens in Raleigh and Charlotte Herbals: Their Origin and Evolution, 1953 Agnes Arber 1879-1960 was a prominent

British botanist specialising in plant morphology and the history of botany In 1946 she became the first female botanist to be elected a Fellow of the Royal Society First published in 1912 and issued in an expanded second edition in 1938 this volume traces the history and development of printed herbals between 1470 and 1670 This two hundred year period was the most prolific for the publication of herbals and significantly saw the emergence of botany as a scientific discipline within the study of natural history Although Arber mentions the medical aspects of the herbal her analysis remains focused on investigating herbals from a botanical view with chapters devoted to the evolution of plant descriptions classifications and illustrations Her book remains the standard work on this subject The text of this volume is taken from a 1953 reissue of the 1938 second edition
