The Hidden Frontier Ecology And Ethnicity In An Alpine Valley By:

The Hidden Frontier John W. Cole, Eric R. Wolf, 1999-11-16 A study of two small villages located on the high alpine rim of northern Italy one German speaking the other a Romance speaking village

Mountainscapes Andrea Boscoboinik, Viviane Cretton, 2025-09-01 Often home to rural indigenous communities mountain regions are rapidly becoming preserves for the social elite and altogether unsustainable within the climate crisis Bringing together scholars from geography sociology anthropology history and urban studies Mountainscapes seeks to re examine the dynamics of mountain mobilities and better understand how tourism migration and pastoralism impacts mountain communities Ranging from the Swiss Alps to the Chilean Andes this volume illuminates how the processes of place making and non belonging specifically manifest and evolve within our ever changing mountain regions

People of the Iberian Borderlands David Martín Marcos, 2022-09-02 This book is devoted to the inhabitants of the Spanish Portuguese borderlands during the early modern period It seeks to challenge a predominant historiography focused on the study of borderlands societies relying exclusively on the antagonistic topics of subversion and the construction of boundaries It states that by focusing just on one concept or another there is a restrictive understanding tending to condition the agency of local communities by external narratives Thus if traditionally border people were reduced by some scholars to actors of a struggle against a supposedly imposed border in a more modern perspective their behaviors have been also framed in bottom up processes of consolidation of spaces of sovereignty in a no less limiting vision Faced with both approaches the objective of this work is not to deny them but first and foremost to situate the experiences of border populations outside of logics that I understand as originally alien to themselves and to highlight their own subjectivity Finally it also demonstrates that most of the practices developed by border people were fundamentally aimed at defending their local communities It will be useful for both audiences interested in early modern Iberia or border studies from a bottom up perspective

Between Frontiers Noboru Ishikawa, 2010-03-15 A staple of postwar academic writing nationalism is a contentious and often unanalyzed abstraction It is generally treated as something imagined fashioned and disseminated as an idea located in the mind in printed matter on maps in symbols such as flags and anthems and in collective memory Between Frontiers restores the nation to the social field from which it has been abstracted by looking at how the concept shapes the existence of people in border zones where they live between nations Noboru Ishikawa grounds his discussion of border zones in materials gathered during two years of archival research and fieldwork relating to the boundary that separates Malaysian from Indonesian territory in western Borneo His book considers how the state maintains its national space and how people strategically situate themselves by their community nation and ethnic group designated as national territory Examining these issues in the context of concrete circumstances where a village boundary coincides with a national border allows him to delineate the dialectical relationship between nation state and borderland society both as history and as process Scholars across the humanities and social sciences will learn from this masterful linking of history and ethnography and of macro and micro perspectives The Shephelah during the Iron Age Oded Lipschits, Aren M. Maeir, 2017-03-24 The area of the Judean Foothills the biblical Shephelah has in recent years become one of the most intensively excavated regions in the world Numerous projects at sites of different types and utilizing various methodological approaches are actively excavating in this region Of particular importance are the discoveries dating to the Iron Age a period when this region was a transition zone between various cultures Philistine Canaanite Judahite and Israelite The current volume includes reports from eight of the excavations currently being conducted in the region Azekah Beth Shemesh Gezer Khirbet Qeiyafa Tel Burna Tel Halif Tell es Safi Gath and Tel Zayit as well as a general study of the region by Ido Koch The importance of this volume lies not only in the fact that it collects up to date reports on most of the current excavations in the region but also demonstrates the lively at times even boisterous scholarly discussions taking place on various issues relating to the archaeology and history of the Iron Age Shephelah and its immediate environs This volume serves as an excellent introduction to current research on the Iron Age in this crucial zone and also serves as a reflection of current trends methodologies and approaches in the archaeology of the Southern Levant Social and Ecological History of the Pyrenees Ismael Vaccaro, Oriol Beltran, 2016-06-03 This major work of historical ecology advances the integration of research on environmental and social systems contributing important lessons for contemporary natural resource policy and management A diverse international region the Pyrenees has been characterized as a quintessential example of rural areas across Europe and North America The authors use qualitative and quantitative methods from economics history anthropology and ecological science to integrate human agency and ecology across a landscape that moved from agricultural and pastoral production to industrialization then experienced acute depopulation and now is becoming a focus of conservation and tourism The book shows how today's most pressing resource policy challenges are best illuminated by this broad long term understanding of humans and landscapes The Anthropology of Climate Change Hans Baer, Merrill Singer, 2014-04-24 In addressing the urgent questions raised by climate change this book provides a comprehensive overview of the anthropology of climate change guided by a critical political ecological framework It argues that anthropologists must significantly expand their focus on climate change and their contributions to responding to climate change as a grave risk to humanity The book presents a human socioecological framework for conceptualizing climate change It examines the emergence and slow maturation of the anthropology of climate change reviews the historic foundations for this work in the archaeology of climate change and presents three alternative contemporary theoretical perspectives in the anthropology of climate change The book synthesizes anthropological work and perspectives on climate change in the form of case studies in various regions of the world revealing the nature of global climate change as constituting multiple and somewhat diverse changes in local settings It explores the applied anthropology of climate change in terms of the ways anthropologists are contributing to climate policy working with communities on climate change issues as well as within the climate movement both internationally and nationally Finally it provides an overview of what other the social sciences are saying about climate change and explores ways that the anthropology of climate change can interface with sociology political science and human geography in order to create an integrated social science of climate change This book gives researchers and students in Environmental Anthropology Climate Change Human Geography and Sociology a novel framework for understanding climate change that emphasizes human socioecological interactions

Border Encounters Jutta Lauth Bacas, William Kavanagh, 2013-10-01 Among the tremendous changes affecting Europe in recent decades those concerning political frontiers have been some of the most significant International borders are being opened in some regions while being redefined or reinforced in others The social relationships of those living in these borderland regions are also changing fundamentally This volume investigates from a local ground up perspective what is happening at some of these border encounters face to face interactions and relations of compliance and confrontation where people are bargaining exchanging goods and information and maneuvering beyond state boundaries Anthropological case studies from a number of European borderlands shed light on the questions of how and to what extent the border context influences the changing interactions and social relationships between people at a political frontier

The Spatial and Economic Transformation of Mountain Regions Manfred Perlik, 2019-01-03 Mountain regions are subject to a unique set of economic pressures they act as collective enterprises which have to valorize rare resources such as spectacular landscapes While primarily rural in nature they often border large cities and the development of industries such as hydroelectric power and the rapid development of tourism can bring about sweeping socio economic change and vast demographic alterations The Spatial and Economic Transformation of Mountain Regions describes the socio economic changes and spatial impacts of the last four decades with the transformation of mountain areas held up as an example Much of the real world context draws on the Alps spanning as they do the significant economies of France Italy Germany Switzerland and Austria Chapters address academic discourse on regional development in these mountain areas and suggest alternative approaches to the liberal productivist societal model This book will be essential reading for professionals institutions and NGOs searching for counter models to the existing marketing approaches for peripheral areas It will also be of interest to students of regional development economic geography environmental studies and industrial economics

The Decline of Regionalism in Putin's Russia J. Paul Goode, 2011-05-11 This book reassesses the process whereby after 2000 Putin reversed the process by which in the 1990s power had shifted from Moscow to the regions It focuses on the dynamics of regional boundaries juridical boundaries which defined a region s territorial extent and thereby its resources institutional boundaries that sustained regional differences and cultural boundaries that defined the ethnic or technocratic principles on which a region could claim legitimate existence

European Border Regions in Comparison Katarzyna Stokłosa, Gerhard Besier, 2014-01-03 Borders exist in almost every sphere of life Initially borders were established in connection with kingdoms regions towns villages and cities With nation building they became important as a line separating

two national states with different national characteristics narratives and myths The term border has a negative connotation for being a separating line a warning signal not to cross a line between the allowed and the forbidden The awareness of both mental and factual borders in manifold spheres of our life has made them a topic of consideration in almost all scholarly disciplines history geography political science and many others This book primarily incorporates an interdisciplinary and comparative approach Historians sociologists anthropologists and political science scholars from a diverse range of European universities analyze historical as well as contemporary perceptions and perspectives concerning border regions inside the EU between EU and non EU European countries and between European and non European countries Of Mind and Matter Peter Thaler, 2009 Thaler contributes to the literature on national identity in border areas and fills a gap in English language history of the particular region For many centuries he explains the duchy of Sleswig between the North and Baltic Seas formed a link and buffer between southern Denmark and northern Germany It is now partitioned between the two states and about the only people who even use the name are local people of one nationality who ended up in the other country It is there that he analyzes the composition and changeable nature of identity and explores what has motivated local inhabitants to define themselves as Germans or Danes Self identification is important he points out because there is little else to distinguish the two groups Among the dimensions he explores are politics history and culture changing times and biographies during the age of nationalism Handbook on Human Security, Borders and Migration Natalia Ribas-Mateos, 2021-02-26 Drawing on the concept of the politics of compassion this Handbook interrogates the political geopolitical social and anthropological processes which produce and govern borders and give rise to contemporary border violence Stalin's Legacy in Romania Stefano Bottoni, 2018-05-29 This study explores the little known history of the Hungarian Autonomous Region HAR a Soviet style territorial autonomy that was granted in Romania on Stalin's personal advice to the Hungarian Székely community in the summer of 1952 Since 1945 a complex mechanism of ethnic balance and power sharing helped the Romanian Communist Party RCP to strengthen with Soviet assistance its political legitimacy among different national and social groups The communist national policy followed an integrative approach toward most minority communities with the relevant exception of Germans who were declared collectively responsible for the German occupation and were denied political and even civil rights until 1948 The Hungarians of Transylvania were provided with full civil political cultural and linguistic rights to encourage political integration The ideological premises of the Hungarian Autonomous Region followed the Bolshevik pattern of territorial autonomy elaborated by Lenin and Stalin in the early 1920s The Hungarians of Székely Land would become a titular nationality provided with extensive cultural rights Yet on the other hand the Romanian central power used the region as an instrument of political and social integration for the Hungarian minority into the communist state The management of ethnic conflicts increased the ability of the PCR to control the territory and at the same time provided the ruling party with a useful precedent for the far larger nationalization of the Romanian communist regime which starting from the late 1950s resulted in ethnicized communism an aim achieved without making use of pre war nationalist discourse After the Hungarian revolution of 1956 repression affected a great number of Hungarian individuals accused of nationalism and irredentism In 1960 the HAR also suffered territorial reshaping its Hungarian born political leadership being replaced by ethnic Romanian cadres The decisive shift from a class dictatorship toward an ethnicized totalitarian regime was the product of the Gheorghiu Dej era and as such it represented the logical outcome of a long standing ideological fouling of Romanian communism and more traditional state building ideologies

Segregation in Language Education

Ann Wand,2023-10-18 This book sets out to try to understand why segregated schooling still exists especially in northern Italy in South Tyrol where they practice separate but equal education Supported by the UN the Austrian and Italian governments the province is considered a peace model due to its consociational approach to dealing with the region s Nazi and Fascist past which has led to a negative peace The autonomy statutes which derived from this peace resulted in an education system that is linguistically segregated for the purposes of protecting South Tyrol s ethnolinguistic minorities Broken into two parts the book begins with the background history of the province before describing the region s geographical layout demographics local identity and its three part schooling system By examining responses to South Tyrol s education system and its impact on local group dynamics this book explores the implications that segregated schooling may have on second language acquisition This case study will be of interest to students and scholars of Italian studies anthropology linguistic ethnography sociolinguistics and second language education

Nothing Without Tourism Danaé Leitenberg,2025-10-01 For centuries locals in many Swiss Alpine villages have depended on visitors wanderlust to sustain their livelihoods Based on ethnographic fieldwork conducted in a German speaking village and tourist resort between 2017 and 2023 this book explores people s everyday experience of tourism as a volatile yet vital industry where successes and failures in the past present and future intersect in puzzling ways Following native locals migrant hospitality workers from mostly Southern and Eastern Europe as well as tourism lobbyists in this globalized mountain village it examines how power imbalance among those dependent on tourism elicit different responses to the dilemmas of tourism

Jon Mathieu,2019-02-25 Stretching 1 200 kilometres across six countries the colossal mountains of the Alps dominate Europe geographically and historically Enlightenment thinkers felt the sublime and magisterial peaks were the very embodiment of nature Romantic poets looked to them for divine inspiration and Victorian explorers tested their ingenuity and courage against them Located at the crossroads between powerful states the Alps have played a crucial role in the formation of European history a place of intense cultural fusion as well as fierce conflict between warring nations A diverse range of flora and fauna have made themselves at home in this harsh environment which today welcomes over 100 million tourists a year Leading Alpine scholar Jon Mathieu tells the story of the people who have lived in and been inspired by these mountains and valleys from the ancient peasants of the Neolithic to the cyclists of the Tour de France Far from being a remote and backward corner of Europe the Alps are shown by Mathieu to have been a crucible of new ideas and technologies at the heart of the European story Mountain Environments and Communities Don Funnell, Romola Parish, 2005-08-18 Presents a broad introduction to the human and physical geography of mountains The book explains the background physical environment and then explores the environmental and social dimensions of mountain regions Communities, Politics, and Reformation in Early Modern Europe Thomas A.
