The Waltzing Body in Victorian Literature Sabrina Gilchrist Hadyk, 2025-03-27 The Waltzing Body in Victorian Literature Narratives of Sexuality and Power traces the evolution of the waltz from a taboo dance in the early nineteenth century to a gracefully nostalgic practice that must be preserved by the century's end While Sabrina Gilchrist Hadyk references eighteenth century authors to frame the waltz's initial reception in England the study focuses primarily on Victorian authors who shaped how and why this dance was paradoxically viewed as elegant effeminate and sterile Hadyk explores female sexuality and the concept of choice in the ballroom a shifting and sometimes contradictory understanding of masculinity through male performance the erasure of and reclamation of queer desire in heterosexual courting spaces and the rhetoric of new technologies that attempted to contain shape and memorialize a temporal art form A brief epilogue considers how late Victorian and heavily sanitized and romanticized depictions of the waltz reverberate today in popular films and reality TV which perpetuate Victorian assumptions about class gender sexuality and more By understanding the history of the waltz the reader is invited to examine the dizzying discomfort that many Victorians expressed about forging ahead into a modern and modernizing world particularly at the turn of the century With comparatively little scholarship around understanding dance scenes and dance semiotics in literature this book articulates a new interpretive path for familiar and unfamiliar nineteenth century narratives offering new ways of understanding and engaging with the role and culture of dance EBRI Issue Brief ,2008 Essential Fish Biology Derek Burton, Margaret Burton, 2018 Essential Fish Biology provides an introductory overview of the functional biology of fish and how this may be affected by the widely contrasting habitat conditions within the aquatic environment It describes the recent advances in comparative animal physiology which have greatly influenced our understanding of fish function as well as generating questions that have yet to be resolved Fish taxa represent the largest number of vertebrates with over 25 000 extant species However much of our knowledge apart from taxonomy and habitat descriptions has been based on relatively few of them usually those which live in fresh water and or are of commercial interest Unfortunately there has also been a tendency to base our interpretation of fish physiology on that of mammalian systems as well as to rely on a few type species of fish This accessible textbook will redress the balance by using examples of fish from a wide range of species and habitats emphasizing diversity as well as recognizing shared attributes with other vertebrates Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1897 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1897 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1897 Contact Zones Myra Rutherdale, Katie Pickles, 2011-11-01 Contact Zones locates Canadian women's history within colonial and imperial systems As both colonizer and colonized sometimes even simultaneously women were uniquely positioned at the axis of the colonial encounter the so called contact zone between Aborigines and newcomers Some women were able to transgress the bounds of social expectation while others reluctantly conformed to them Aboriginal women such as E Pauline Johnson Bernice Loft and Ethel Brant Monture shaped identities for themselves in both worlds By recognizing the necessity to perform they enchanted and educated white audiences across Canada On the other side of the coin newcomers imposed increasing regulation on Aboriginal women s bodies Missionaries for example preached the virtues of Christian conjugality over mixed race and polygamous marriages especially those that hadn t been ratified by the church The Department of Indian Affairs agents withheld treaty payments or removed the children of Aboriginal women who did not properly perform their duties as wives and mothers In short Aboriginal women were expected to consent to moral sexual and marital rules that white women were already beginning to contest Contact Zones draws upon a vast array of primary sources to provide insight into the ubiquity and persistence of colonial discourse and to demonstrate how it ultimately was an embodied experience Above all it shows how the colonial enterprise was about embodied contacts What bodies belonged inside the nation who were outsiders and who transgressed the rules these are the questions at the heart of this provocative book Jean Barman s chapter from Contact Zones Aboriginal Women on the Streets of Victoria Rethinking Transgressive Sexuality during the Colonial Encounter won the award from the Canadian Committee on the History of Sexuality Cecilia Morgan s Performing for Imperial Eyes Bernice Loft and Ethel Brant Monture Ontario 1930s 60s from Contact Zones was awarded the Hilda Neatby Prize in Canadian Women s History Eyes on the Street Robert Kanigel,2017-08-08 The first major biography of the irrepressible woman who changed the way we view and live in cities and whose influence is felt to this day Jane Jacobs was a phenomenal woman who wrote seven groundbreaking books saved neighborhoods stopped expressways was arrested twice and engaged in thousands of impassioned debates all of which she won Robert Kanigel s revelatory portrait of Jacobs based on new sources and interviews brings to life the child who challenged her third grade teacher the high school poet the mother who raised three children the journalist who honed her skills at Architectural Forum and Fortune before writing her most famous book The Death and Life of Great American Cities and the activist who helped lead a successful protest against Robert Moses s proposed expressway through her beloved Greenwich Village Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News I.
