The Real and the Romantic Frances Spalding,2022-07-07

The 21st century has seen a surge of interest in English art of the interwar years Women artists such as Winifred Knights Frances Hodgkins and Evelyn Dunbar have come to the fore while familiar names Paul Nash Eric Ravilious and Stanley Spencer have reached new audiences High profile exhibitions have attracted recordbreaking visitor numbers and challenged received opinion In The Real and the Romantic Frances Spalding one of Britains leading art historians and critics takes a fresh and timely look at this rich period in English art The devastation of the First World War left the art world decentred and directionless This book is about its recovery Spalding explores how exciting new ideas co existed with a desire for continuity and a renewed interest in the past We see the challenge to English artists represented by C zanne and Picasso and the role played by museums and galleries in this period Women artists writers and curators contributed to the emergence of a new avant garde The English landscape was revisited in modern terms The 1930s marked a high point in the history of modernism in Britain but the mood darkened with the prospect of a return to war The former advance towards abstraction and internationalism was replaced by a renewed concern with history place memory and a sense of belonging Native traditions were revived in modern terms but in ways that also let in the past Surrealism further disturbed the ascetic purity of high modernism and fed into the British love of the strange Throughout these years the pursuit of the real was set against and sometimes merged with an inclination towards the romantic as English artists sought to respond to their subjects and their times

The Mistress of Mayfair Lyndsy Spence,2016-11-07 The plot could have been inspired by Evelyn Waugh s Vile Bodies but unlike Waugh s novel which parodies the era of the Bright Young Things The Mistress of Mayfair is a real life story of scandal greed corruption and promiscuity at the heart of 1920s and 30s high society focusing on the wily willful socialite Doris Delevingne and her doomed relationship with the gossip columnist Valentine Browne Viscount Castlerosse Marrying each other in pursuit of the finer things in life their unlikely union was tempestuous from the off rocked by affairs with a whole host of society figures including Cecil Beaton Diana Mitford and Winston Churchill amongst others on both sides and degenerated into one of London s bitterest and most talked about divorce battles In this compelling new book Lyndsy Spence follows the rise and fall of their relationship exploring their decadent society lives in revelatory detail and offering new insight into some of the mid twentieth century s most prominent figures
