Law and Love in Ovid Ioannis Ziogas, 2021-01-28 In classical scholarship the presence of legal language in love poetry is commonly interpreted as absurd and incongruous Ovid s legalisms have been described as frivolous humorous and ornamental Law and Love in Ovid challenges this wide spread but ill informed view Legal discourse in Latin love poetry is not incidental but fundamental

Inspired by recent work in the interdisciplinary field of law and literature Ioannis Ziogas argues that the Roman elegiac poets point to love as the site of law's emergence The Latin elegiac poets may say make love not law but in order to make love they have to make law Drawing on Agamben Foucault and Butler Law and Love in Ovid explores the juridico discursive nature of Ovid's love poetry constructions of sovereignty imperialism authority biopolitics and the ways in which poetic diction has the force of law The book is methodologically ambitious combining legal theory with historically informed close readings of numerous primary sources Ziogas aims to restore Ovid to his rightful position in the history of legal humanism The Roman poet draws on a long tradition that goes back to Hesiod and Solon in which poetic justice is pitted against corrupt rulers Ovid's amatory jurisprudence is examined vis à vis Paul's letter to the Romans The juridical nature of Ovid's poetry lies at the heart of his reception in the Middle Ages from Boccaccio's Decameron to Forcadell's Cupido iurisperitus The current trend to simultaneously study and marginalize legal discourse in Ovid is a modern construction that Law and Love in Ovid aims to demolish fiction literally from the New York Times bestselling author of The Seven Year Slip and The Dead Romantics Eileen Merriweather loves to get lost in a good happily ever after The fictional kind anyway Because at least imaginary men don't leave you at the altar She feels safe in a book At home Which might be why she's so set on going her annual book club retreat this year she needs good friends cheap wine and grand romantic gestures no matter what But when her car unexpectedly breaks down on the way she finds herself stranded in a quaint town that feels like it's right out of a novel Because it is This place can't be real and yet she's here in Eloraton the town of her favorite romance series where the candy store's honey taffy is always sweet the local bar's burgers are always a little burnt and rain always comes in the afternoon It feels like home It's perfect and perfectly frozen trapped in the late author's last unfinished story Elsy is sure that's why she must be here to help bring the town to its storybook ending Except there is a character in Eloraton that she can't place a grumpy bookstore owner with mint green eyes an irritatingly sexy mouth and impeccable taste in novels And he does not want her finishing this book Which is a problem because Elsy is beginning to think the town's happily ever after might just be intertwined with her own
