Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett, 2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the

Sarah Burgoyne, 2021-05-18 Camus's Meursault and Thelma and Louise meet up under the blazing sun Vexed by the unremarkable star that presses Camus's Meursault to commit murder Because the Sun considers the blazing sun as a material symbol of ambient violence violence absorbed like heat and fired at the nearest victim Likewise as a friendship between women confronts gendered aggression in Thelma and Louise the sun becomes the repository of pain the high noon that pushes us through desert after desert Because the Sun's pastiche of voices embodies both stylistic and formal relentlessness by teasing out tonalities that blend and merge into each other generating a blinding effect like looking into the sun Breathless and death defying the poems in Because the Sun are high wire work They sway above us in a blazing light of Burgoyne's making It is so rare that a book of poems is both a tuning fork for our minds as well as a balm for our bodies But that is exactly what happens page after page in this blazing book Michael Dickman author of Days Days This beautiful work wraps Camus's The Stranger in a poetics concerning erasure hope Out of the titular Sun's burning punctum burst telling shards of what is erased by Camus's remarkable construction of whiteness in the masculine the dead Arab the female body's interminable violations but also its warming even blinding capacity for consequential pleasures Gail Scott author of Heroine Sarah Burgoyne begins with the sun and ends with flowers In between is a complicated exploration of what it means to exist within a tradition that is Camus Rimbaud Blake Taking her cue from Sara Ahmed she notices how hard it is to challenge this tradition and yet that it matters to do it anyway Juliana Spahr author of That Winter the Wolf Came The Florist and Pomologist, 1883 Teetotaler, 1841
