The Lectionary 2004:

The Living Church, 2003-07 The Usefulness of Scripture Daniel Castelo, Sara M. Koenig, David R.

Nienhuis, 2018-05-04 Robert Wall began his teaching career at Seattle Pacific University in 1978. Now forty years later and in celebration of his seventieth birthday, colleagues and former students have gathered to produce this volume in honor of their friend and teacher. The results are sure to delight all of those who have studied under or been friends of Professor Wall. The essays are grouped under two general themes: theology and methodology with an emphasis on Wesleyan biblical hermeneutics, canonical perspectives, and the implications of these approaches for church life and work and biblical texts, themes especially with a view to the relationship of the study of Scripture to the life of the Christian. In both of these areas, the contributions bear in mind Wall's conviction that academic study and spiritual life need not in fact should not be kept apart. The contributors to this volume include Frank Anthony Spina, Andrew Knapp, Shannon Nicole Smythe, Daniel Castelo, Anthony B. Robinson, Eugene E. Lemcio, Sara M. Koenig, Jack Levison, Laura C. S. Holmes, John Painter, and Stephen E. Fowl.

The Worship Architect Constance M. Cherry, 2021-08-17 Worship professor and practitioner Constance Cherry shows how to create services that are faithful to Scripture, historically conscious, relevant to God, Christ-centered, and engaging for worshipers of all ages in the twenty-first century. More than 150 colleges and seminaries have used or currently use the first edition as a required text. In this new edition, each chapter has been substantially updated and revised, including illustrations, key terms, examples, technological references, and suggested resources for further reading. A new chapter on global worship and a new appendix on live-streamed worship are included. A Companion to Common Worship Paul Frederick Bradshaw, 2001

Introducing the Lessons of the Church Year Frederick Borsch, 2009-09 Many of us have difficulty hearing the Bible as it is read to us in church. Sunday after Sunday through the year. A Companion to Common Worship Paul F. Bradshaw, 2006 Sundays Two to Thirty-Four in Ordinary Time Adrien Nocent, 2013 Adrien Nocent's The Liturgical Year was the first comprehensive commentary on the three-year lectionary in its relation to the Sacramentary of Paul VI. Now this extraordinary work of applied postconciliar liturgical scholarship has been revised and annotated by Paul Turner. While taking care to keep Nocent's voice, the revision provides a brief introduction placing the commentary in its historical context, annotations that provide a bridge between Nocent's day and our own, explanatory notes on history, culture, language, and liturgy where needed, gender-inclusive language where appropriate, liturgical texts that conform to The Roman Missal Third Edition. As we celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Vatican II's Sacrosanctum Concilium, encounter again or for the first time the still fresh, vibrant scholarship and pastoral wisdom of Adrien Nocent's The Liturgical Year. Back cover.

Gemeinhardt,Lieve Van Hoof,Peter Van Nuffelen,2016-03-31 This book studies the complex attitude of late ancient Christians towards classical education In recent years the different theoretical positions that can be found among the Church Fathers have received particular attention their statements ranged from enthusiastic assimilation to outright rejection the latter sometimes masking implicit adoption Shifting attention away from such explicit statements this volume focuses on a series of lesser known texts in order to study the impact of specific literary and social contexts on late ancient educational views and practices By moving attention from statements to strategies this volume wishes to enrich our understanding of the creative engagement with classical ideals of education The multi faceted approach adopted here illuminates the close connection between specific educational purposes on the one hand and the possibilities and limitations offered by specific genres and contexts on the other Instead of seeing attitudes towards education in late antique texts as applications of theoretical positions it reads them as complex negotiations between authorial intent the limitations of genre and the context of performance

Preaching Prophetic Care Phillis Isabella Sheppard,Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm,Ronald J. Allen,2018-06-25 Preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation s complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance The twenty seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective Such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community Rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today s social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel The contributions honor the work of the late Dale Andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the Divinity School Vanderbilt University whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice
