Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Indomitable: The Life of Barbara Grier Joanne Passet, 2016-11-01 Whatever else will be said about her and you can bet there will be plenty because Barbara was no stranger to controversy the one thing that is true above all else is that she was the most important person in lesbian publishing in the world Without her boldness and her audacity there might not be the robust lesbian publishing industry there is today Teresa DeCrescenzo Barbara Grier feminist activist publisher and archivist was many things to different people Perhaps most well known as one of the founders of Naiad Press Barbara's unapologetic drive to make sure that lesbians everywhere had access to books with stories that reflected their lives in positive ways was legendary Barbara changed the lives of thousands of women in her lifetime For the first time historian Joanne Passet uncovers the controversial and often polarizing life of this firebrand editor and publisher with new and never before published letters interviews and other personal material from Grier's own papers Passet takes readers behind the scenes of The Ladder offering a rare window onto the isolated and bereft lives lesbians experienced before the feminist movement and during the earliest days of gay political organizing Through extensive letters between

Grier and her friend novelist Jane Rule Passet offers a virtual diary of this dramatic and repressive era Passet also looks at Grier s infamous theft of The Ladder s mailing list which in turn allowed her to launch and promote Naiad Press the groundbreaking women s publishing company she founded with partner Donna McBride in 1973 Naiad went on to become one of the leaders in gay and lesbian book publishing and for years helped sustain lesbian and feminist bookstores and readers across the country

Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II Sonya L Jones,2014-05-22

Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II chronicles the multifaceted explosion of gay and lesbian writing that has taken place in the second half of the twentieth century Encompassing a wide range of subject matter and a balance of gay and lesbian concerns it includes work by established scholars as well as young theoreticians and archivists who have initiated new areas of investigation The contributors examinations of this rich literary period make it easy to view the half century from 1948 to 1998 as the Queer Renaissance Included in Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II are critical and social analyses of literary movements novels short fiction periodicals and poetry as well as a look at the challenges of establishing a repository for lesbian cultural history Specific chapters in this groundbreaking work trace the development of gay poetry in America after World War II examine how AIDS is represented in the first four Latino novels to deal with the subject matter and chronicle the birth of lesbian feminist publishing in the 1970s showing how it created a flourishing gay literature in the 1980s and 1990s Other chapters outline the history of The Ladder from its initial publication in 1956 as the official vehicle of the Daughters of Bilitis to its final issue as a privately published literary magazine in 1972 examine Baldwin s 1962 novel Another Country and discuss the complicated critical history of this work and its relation to Baldwin s literary reputation racial sexual and political factors are taken into account chart how Other Voices Other Rooms by Truman Capote and The House of Breath by William Goyen reveal contradictory genderings of male homosexuality suggesting an absence of a unified model of mid twentieth century male homosexuality argue that the 1976 novel Lover by Bertha Harris can be considered an exemplary novel within discussions of both postmodern fiction and lesbian theory The author calls for Harris to be added to the group of writers such as Wittig Anzald a Lorde and Winterson who are discussed within the context of a postmodern lesbian narrative examine the short fiction of Canadian lesbian novelist Jane Rule in an effort to shed light on lesbian creative practice in the homophobic climate of postwar North America argue for an understanding of Dale Peck s novel Martin and John as an attempt to link two apparently different processes of import to contemporary male subjects through examination of the novel alongside selected passages from Nietzsche and Freud focus on the pragmatic issues of developing and maintaining accessible research venues from which to cultivate the study of racial and cultural diversity in lesbian lives Document the history of the Lesbian Herstory Archives one of the first lesbian specific collections in the world from its birth in the early 1970s to the present
