The Letters of Charles and Mary Anne Lamb Charles Lamb, Jr., Mary Anne Lamb, 2019-01-24 All of the available letters of Charles Lamb a master of the English essay and his sister Mary Anne published in this definitive scrupulously edited work The letters many of them written to illustrious figures of the Romantic period are generally agreed to rank among the finest in the English language Transcribing where possible from the originals or facsimiles Professor Marrs corrects textual errors found in previous editions and he pays particular attention to establishing precise dates for the correspondence He includes letters that were omitted from the last collection published in 1935 and long out of print and he has uncovered more than eighty letters never published before The Letters of Charles and Mary Anne Lamb totals five or six volumes and presents nearly 1200 letters written by Charles and Mary singly or together The correspondence is fully annotated the volumes are illustrated and the holographic idiosyncrasies of the originals are rendered typographically wherever possible Rich in revelations about the extraordinary lives of the Lambs these beautifully written letters are an inexhaustible store of information about the Romantic era and its major figures Wordsworth Keats and Coleridge The publication of unexpurgated and authoritative texts is an important literary event The first volume was published in 1975 the bicentenary of Charles Lamb's birth It contains 102 letters written by Charles many of them after Mary murdered their mother Among the recipients were the poets Coleridge Southey and Wordsworth The letters provide shrewd observations on his friends writings and his own vivid descriptions of life in London and compassionate but candid remarks concerning his family and acquaintances Notes to each letter place it in context quoting where necessary from the correspondence Lamb is answering

The Letters of Charles Lamb Charles Lamb, 2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1900 Edition

The Best Letters of Charles Lamb Charles Lamb, 2015-06-25 Excerpt from The Best Letters of Charles Lamb In this edition of the correspondence of Charles Lamb that of his sister Mary Lamb is for the first time included In it also appear for the first time between seventy and eighty letters many of them of the highest importance and it is the first edition to take note in chronological order of those letters printed by other editors that are not available for the present volumes a step which should I think add to the biographical value of the work In these two volumes I have after much consideration placed my notes at the end of each letter rather than as in the five preceding volumes at the end of the book My reason for doing so was twofold in the first place to serve the convenience of the reader to whom annotation of the correspondence is often a necessity and not as in the case of the other writings a luxury and in the second place because by joining the letters with a few words of commentary they can be made practically into a consecutive Life The self conscious deliberate construction of Lamb's essays and poems each a work of art forbade the introduction of footnotes that might distract the attention from the true matter of the text hence in the preceding five volumes such remarks as the editor had to make will be found sharply separated from the authors part of the book But here where Lamb is often writing without premeditation with a running pen and writing moreover for a single reader it seemed to me that the impropriety of interrupting the correspondence by elucidatory comments was so slight as to be almost non-existent. About the Publisher
