A Critical Analysis of Jesse Hill Ford's The Liberation of Lord Byron Jones Jimmie B. Askew, 1970      Generations of Jewish Directors and the Struggle for America's Soul Sam B. Girgus, 2021-08-11 From generation to generation three outstanding American Jewish directors William Wyler Sidney Lumet and Steven Spielberg advance a tradition of Jewish writers artists and leaders who propagate the ethical basis of the American Idea and Creed They strive to renew the American spirit by insisting that America must live up to its values and ideals These directors accentuate the ethical responsibility for the other as a basis of the American soul and a source for strengthening American liberal democracy In the manner of the jeremiad their films challenge America to achieve a liberal democratic culture for all people by becoming more inclusive and by modernizing the American Idea Following an introduction that relates aspects of modern ethical thought to the search for America's soul the book divides into three sections The Wyler section focuses on the director's social vision of a changing America The Lumet section views his films as dramatizing Lumet's dynamic and aggressive social and ethical conscience The Spielberg section tracks his films as a movement toward American redemption and renewal that aspires to realize Lincoln's vision of America as the hope of the world The directors among many others perpetuate a New Covenant that advocates change and renewal in the American experience      Civilizing and Decivilizing

Historical Syntax of the English Language F.Th. Visser,2023-05-08 Frederik Theodor Visser's An Historical Syntax of the English Language published in four massive volumes between 1963 and 1973 is certainly one of the cornerstones of research in English linguistics Visser's achievements can hardly be overestimated Before the advent of modern corpus linguistics he compiled a remarkable wealth of detailed philological data from all periods of English and combined this with current grammatical analyses of his time This has made this publications an indispensable resource for anyone investigating the history of English syntax This reproduction of Visser's volumes is more than welcome and timely as the volumes have been out of print for quite some time and were sometimes a little bit difficult to navigate Having a searchable and easy to use online version although maybe not perfect available now means a revival for scholarship that celebrates its fiftieth birthday without losing any of its relevance Kite-Flying and Other Irrational Acts John Carr,1999-03-01 Interviews with Doris

Betts Fred Chappell Shelby Foote Jesse Hill Ford George Garrett Larry L King Marion Montgomery Willie Morris Guy Owen Walker Percy Reynolds Price James Whitehead What does it mean to be a Southern writer in the 1970s What is the nature of today's South and what prospects does it offer a writer These twelve interviews with writers of fiction poetry and nonfiction elicit some thoughtful and revealing answers Because the interviews were taped there is a spontaneity that brings forth the personality of each writer and provides a text that is interesting and entertaining as well as instructive In the first interview with Shelby Foote to appear since the early 1950s the Mississippi novelist discusses his fiction and extensive writing on Civil War history A thoughtful conversation with Walker Percy ranges over his three novels and reveals their philosophical roots Marion Montgomery speaks perceptively about his fiction and poetry as ceremonial efforts to reconcile the private act with the public act A two part interview with Reynolds Price suggests the nature of one novelist's mind as he chronicles a world beneath the one other people perceive that world which seems to impinge upon to color to shape the daily world we inhabit Willie Morris tells about growing up in Mississippi about going home to Yazoo and about the effect of New York on his Southernness while Larry L King speaks of race relations literature and Texas and talks frankly about how he and Morris came to resign from Harper's The short story is Doris Betts forte and she comments significantly on the form which allows her to speak briefly on long subjects The business of writing is as irrational as kite flying observes George Garrett in a candid discussion of the publishing world his own ups and downs as a writer and his latest novel The Death of the Fox Jesse Hill Ford talking about his fiction and his writing career speaks up proudly for the South Nest to a bulldozer blade a magnolia is probably the hardest damned thing in the world Both the mountain country of North Carolina and the fantastic landscapes of his imagination have influenced Fred Chappell who remarks on the grotesque in his novels and poetry Guy Owen tells about his interacting roles as fiction writer poet editor and teacher his compelling interest in the Lumbee Indians of North Carolina and his experience with Hollywood Poetry the novel football and a passion for teaching are the subjects of a provocative and free wheeling conversation with James Whitehead Have you ever stopped to think that for the first time there have been no rational rewards for writing in the way that there were in the past Nowadays it's about as rational as saying What do you do for a living Well I'm a kite flyer I mean there's not a great demand for kite flyers around There may be a few who draw a little money Therefore today writing appeals to a different mentality A Shakespeare today might be doing something else that's more rational Now the other thing is that because this is true fundamentally writing doesn't matter in the world of commerce It has a certain kind of I wouldn't say purity but freedom that is never had George Garrett Michigan Ensign, 1999
