The Liberators:

The Liberators Philip Womack, 2010-04-05 On his first trip to London to stay with his glamorous aunt and uncle for Christmas Ivo Moncrieff steps off the train and stumbles into a nightmare As he is waiting on the tube platform a stranger thrusts a mysterious object into his hand desperately muttering some unfamiliar words to him On board the tube moments later the carriage next to Ivo's is overcome with panic and when they enter the next station the passengers disembark to find that the stranger's body has been brutally dismembered Ivo guesses that perpetrators must want the object and if they find out he has it he will be their next target But the attack on the tube is part of a larger scheme to bring chaos to the heart of London As the capital seems in danger of sliding into anarchy Ivo faces a race against time to break the ancient power of the Liberators a power that has lain dormant for centuries but now threatens to destroy society itself Philip Womack has written a gripping and thought provoking tale that entertains at the same time as it explores what it means to be human and to be free

The B-24 Liberator Haulers William Wolf, 2024-09-30 With iconic images depicting it in the skies over Occupied Europe or the Far East the B 24 Liberator is remembered for its part in the Allies bombing campaigns during the Second World War But there was another part to this famous four engine aircraft one that is less well known While the Douglas C 47 Dakota is deservedly celebrated as the most important twin engine transport aircraft of the war the early use of the four engine Consolidated B 24 Liberator bomber as a passenger carrier is virtually unknown but was as important Since the B 24 had more interior room than the B 17 it could be more easily be converted into a personnel carrier These early Liberators operated America's and Britain's early diplomatic missions and then were to be extensively flown by the Atlantic Ferry Organization and the Transport Commands on missions that opened the world to air transport as never before Several B 24s were converted for VIP personal and diplomatic use which included Harriman s Moscow and round the world diplomatic mission and those used by Churchill and Eisenhower to get around To meet the need for a cargo and personnel transport which had longer transoceanic range and improved high altitude performance than the C 47 in early 1942 the C 87 a hastily designed B 24 derivative was placed into production By installing a built up floor section that replaced the bomb bay doors the C 87 could carry six tons of cargo loaded through a cargo door cut into the side of its fuselage or through a special hinged door in its nose Most C 87s were operated by the US Ferrying Command and Air Transport Command by the late summer of 1943 they were extensively operating regular routes from the United States to the world s most remote areas To meet this increased requirement for air transport the ATC was forced to turn to four civil commercial airlines for help operating the system Of the 287 purpose built C 87s 24 were transferred to the RAF under Lend Lease for RAF Ferry and Transport Command The C 87 would remain as a prime mover until the dedicated C 54 Skymaster four engine transport came into service The 218 C 109s were fuel tanker conversions of completed B 24 bombers which had all armament removed and extra fuel tanks added to carry fuel from India for B 29s based in China Due to the lack of C 47s after D Day conventional B 24s were again converted for transporting vital supplies and bulk fuel to troops in France Once Allied troops broke out of the Normandy beachhead converted Liberators flew Trucking supply drop operations delivering emergency fuel and supplies to Patton s fuel starved armies racing across France Later these B 24s supplied the ill fated Operation Market Garden at Arnhem
