Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner, 2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church s life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer s conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology Being an Intergenerational Church Suzi Farrant, Darren Philip, 2023-08-31 There is a growing realisation across mainstream churches that age segregated models of connecting with children young people and families are not working Drawing on their extensive experience Suzi Farrant and Darren Philip set out a vision for bringing the generations back together to become the intergenerational church we are designed to be In conversation with the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer they develop a theological rationale for intentional intergenerational relationships of mutuality lived out within the core activities of the church Through an exploration of the Christian practices of humility hospitality participation discipleship joy worship discernment and testimony they call the church to re discover its DNA as an all age community of transformation Fools, Martyrs, Traitors Lacey Baldwin Smith, 1999 Lacey Baldwin Smith takes us on a riveting journey through history as he examines one of the most baffling characteristics of the human experience the willingness to die to sanctify a deity defend a cause or simply to prove a point By delving into the psyches politics and personalities of martyrs like Thomas Becket John Brown and Gandhi he illuminates the complex and elusive subject of martyrdom as it has evolved over 2 500 years

Dietrich Bonhoeffer Elizabeth Raum, 2003-09-03 Nazi Germany produced an unusual group of Christian martyrs among them the nun philosopher Edith Stein the mystical philosopher Simone Weil and the peasant conscientious objector Hans J Sgerstatter but perhaps none so complex as the Lutheran theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer Born into a large upper middle class professional family that was not particularly devout or observant his father was one of the leading psychiatrists in Germany Dietrich early in life decided he wanted to be a Christian theologian Yet his family background and connections insured that he wouldn't be one in the narrow mold of so many of his colleagues Opportunities for travel to Spain North Africa Mexico Cuba America twice and England often gave him a broad horizon of possibilities The greatest thing about America for him was his experiences in Harlem and his friendships with African Americans His great regret was that he missed an opportunity to travel to India to meet Gandhi He was one of the few German churchmen who spoke forthrightly against the persecution of Jews as Jews and not merely of Christians of Jewish descent How much of this was due to his beloved 90 year old grandmother Sophie who defied the Nazi ban on shopping in Jewish stores I buy the things I need where I like His family connections drew him into a dangerous double game His employment as a member of the Counterintelligence Office of the High Command of the Armed Forces enabled him to continue work as a pastor and seminary director It allowed him to travel abroad where he worked for a negotiated peace And it eventually drew him into the plot to kill Hitler an ethical stand which many German Christians of his generation couldn't understand or forgive He was executed on 9 April 1945 three weeks before Hitler committed suicide He was thirty nine years old The life of Dietrich

Bonhoeffer has been told at great length and in magnificent detail by his younger colleague Eberhard Bethge. It is a biography that will never be surpassed but which only the most devoted will have the perseverance to read. Elizabeth Raum has retold the story concisely and readably for a whole new generation of readers. Prison Narratives from Boethius to Zana P. Phillips, 2014-07-24. Prison Narratives from Boethius to Zana critically examines selected works of writers from the sixth century to the twenty-first century who were imprisoned for their beliefs. Chapters explore figures' lives, provide close analyses of their works, and offer contextualization of their prison writings.
