The Life Of Raphael:

The Life of Raphael Herman Friedrich Grimm, 1889 The Life of Raphael Giorgio Vasari, 2018-04-03 Giorgio Vasari Florentine painter and architect friend of Michelangelo and intimate of the Medici is best known for his Lives of the Most Excellent Painters Sculptors and Architects published in 1550 and in an enlarged edition in 1568 With more than two hundred biographies it has for centuries been recognized as a seminal text in art history and one of the most important sources on the Italian Renaissance It is to Vasari that we owe much of our knowledge of Raphael 1483 1520 who in his day was considered perhaps the greatest painter of all time Rich in colorful anecdotes The Life of Raphael is important for its sustained attention to the range of Raphael's art whose chronology and development Vasari describes in detail together with the painter's ample love life and spectacular social career It also pays attention unprecedented for its time to theoretical issues This edition introduced by the scholar Jill Burke includes thirty pages of color illustrations covering the entire span of Raphael's oeuvre The Raphael Book Frank Roy Fraprie, 1912 Raphael Santi Alfred Freiherr von Wolzogen, 1866

Raphael's Ostrich Una Roman D'Elia, 2016-04-27 Raphael's Ostrich begins with a little studied aspect of Raphael's painting the ostrich which appears as an attribute of Justice painted in the Sala di Costantino in the Vatican Una Roman D'Elia traces the cultural and artistic history of the ostrich from its appearances in ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs to the menageries and grotesque ornaments of sixteenth century Italy Following the complex history of shifting interpretations given to the ostrich in scientific literary religious poetic and satirical texts and images D'Elia demonstrates the rich variety of ways in which people made sense of this living monster which was depicted as the embodiment of heresy stupidity perseverance justice fortune gluttony and other virtues and vices Because Raphael was revered as a god of art artists imitated and competed with his ostrich while religious and cultural critics complained about the potential for misinterpreting such obscure imagery This book not only considers the history of the ostrich but also explores how Raphael's painting forced viewers to question how meaning is attributed to the natural world a debate of central importance in early modern Europe at a time when the disciplines of modern art history and natural history were developing The strangeness of Raphael's ostrich situated at the crossroads of art religion myth and natural history both reveals lesser known sides of Raphael's painting and illuminates major cultural shifts in attitudes toward nature and images in the Renaissance More than simply an examination of a single artist or a single subject Raphael's Ostrich offers an accessible erudite and charming alternative to Vasari's pervasive model of the history of sixteenth century Italian art Lives of Seventy of the Most Eminent Painters,

Sculptors and Architects Giorgio Vasari, 1902 The Life of Raphael Herman Friedrich Grimm, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 188 edition Excerpt would seem as if Raphael's final establishment in Rome produced a change in the Madonna paintings The Virgin with the Diadem with Roman ruins in the background is a significant proof of this To my feeling the most beautiful thing in it is the child asleep with his little arm under his head from which the Virgin kneeling in front has raised the veil like covering By some critics the awestruck adoring boy John is supposed to be the work of another hand About this time the Madonna di Loretto in Vasari s time in Sta Maria del Popolo also originated which has been missing since the wars of the first French Republic and is now known only through copies Her face and indeed her whole attitude Raphael lent later to the allegorical goddess of Justice on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura The last in the series of these first Roman Madonnas is that of Foligno at first in Ara Coeli in Rome the primitive church which it is said will soon disappear to make place for ths monument to Victor Emanuel then in Foligno afterwards in Paris and to day in the Vatican Herder saw it in Foligno in 1788 He writes to his wife We have seen a Raphael much more beautiful than that in Loretto Mary with her child upon the clouds the child has risen from her lap and is about to step with one little foot upon the clouds Below an excellent John the Baptist a man who has a world in himself A glorious piece but alas injured the nuns are allowing it to be ruined I can agree with Herder only so far as regards the figure below for the Madonna strikes me as having a certain conscious elegance which is peculiar also to other Madonnas of this first Roman period Whoever gave the order for this painting may possibly have
