The Lifeguard:

The Lifeguard Mary Morris, 2012-03-21 It was with her stories that Mary Morris first won attention and acclaim her first collection Vanishing Animals received the prestigious Rome Prize and her second The Bus of Dreams was widely hailed In this new collection Mary Morris once again shows her great sensitivity to men and women at moments of turbulence uncertainty and crisis in their lives and how they can reach for the unexpected and the spiritual at such times In the title story a lifeguard sees his teenage mystique among the girls on the beach dissolve in a panicked moment when he cannot save a child In The Wall a woman confronts her husband's first marriage in the form of a mural on a kitchen wall that he is strangely unable to contemplate painting over In The Glass Bottom Boat a mother on her first trip abroad learns about trust through a solicitous stranger In The Snowmaker's Wife a housewife left alone while her husband works long hours at a mountaintop ski resort starts to suspect his betrayal as well as her own perceptions In addition to these stories which have appeared in The Boston Globe Magazine Vogue and other magazines are two brand new stories Vital Signs tells of the consequences of a doctor bringing back to life a young woman half dead on the side of the road and Cross Word is a wonderfully funny play on those puzzles and the people who do them Combining Mary Morris's consummate craft as a storyteller with her gift for dramatic travel writing The Lifeguard is a powerful and haunting collection The Lifeguard
