Valente, 2011-03-29 A glorious retelling of the Russian folktale Marya Morevna and Koschei the Deathless from Catherynne M Valente set in a mysterious version of St Petersburg during the first half of the 20th century Koschei the Deathless is to Russian folklore what devils or wicked witches are to European culture a menacing evil figure the villain of countless stories which have been passed on through story and text for generations But Koschei has never before been seen through the eyes of Catherynne Valente whose modernized and transformed take on the legend brings the action to modern times spanning many of the great developments of Russian history in the twentieth century Deathless however is no dry historical tome it lights up like fire as the young Marya Morevna transforms from a clever child of the revolution to Koschei's beautiful bride to his eventual undoing Along the way there are Stalinist house elves magical quests secrecy and bureaucracy and games of lust and power All told Deathless is a collision of magical history and actual history of revolution and mythology of love and death which will bring Russian myth back to life in a stunning new incarnation At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Women in Exile and Alienation Kaptan Singh, 2016-06-22 Since World War II exile and alienation have become two of the most prominent themes in world literature Canadian and Indian literatures are no exception Modern human civilisation is passing through a terrible ordeal following on from the catastrophic consequences of two world wars and many people have been overwhelmed and overawed by the growth of science technology and urbanisation Alienation a feeling of not belonging has filled the life of modern man with uncertainties and disappointments obstructions and frustrations Indian and Canadian literatures are currently two of the most acclaimed forms of global literature with major themes including a search for identity a struggle for survival and self and social isolation and it is not surprising that female writers are major voices in both Indian and Canadian literature There is a heavy imbalance of power between two sexes in both cultures where men are considered to be domineering and the centre of the family while women are regarded as subordinate to men Women s suppression compels them to live in their self exiled and alienated world The works of Margaret Laurence and Anita Desai depict heart rending facts and bitter realities which women have to face in an emotionless modern society Since the patriarchal structure is prevalent in India and Canada women are categorised as second rate citizens and are treated as liabilities by their families due to a lack of financial power In the absence of any economic social emotional and financial support they also consider themselves inferior to men Time and again they revolt against the mechanical and merciless treatment of their family and society and sometimes they choose self exile as a safeguard against the callous and selfish treatment of their family members Their inner desire to revolt against an oppressive society and the prevailing cultural norm only increases their isolation In their works Laurence and Desai have unveiled the tortured psyche of sensitive women who are unable to share their feelings with others and are destined to live an emotionally deprived life

A Liverpool Lass Katie Flynn, 2011-03-22 Liverpool December 1905 In the breaking dawn of a raw windswept morning a new born baby girl is left at the door of an orphanage So helpless and appealing is the foundling that young Nellie McDowell the maid of all work decides there and then to adopt her as her own sister In the years that follow Nellie and Lilac become even closer than sisters in their shared struggle to survive the grinding poverty of their lot But they cannot lean on each other for ever Nellie delights in the promise of love and tastes the bitterness of betrayal just as the long finger of war stretches out to divide the girls and rob Liverpool of a whole generation of its young men Sure to please fans and newcomers alike this is classic Katie Flynn saga writing at its best

The Impermanence of Lilies Daniel Yeo, 2023-07-17 The captain of the Titanic went down with his ship on 15 April 1912 But thoughts have power and those who endure in the stories of the living are said to continue to roam the world after their deaths And so the captain wanders in search of the things he tried to find in life and discovers his destiny intimately entwined with a painter who shares the same fate not knowing that their paths had crossed a long time ago The Impermanence of Lilies is a melancholic tribute to the nature of life and a yearning for love in a story that reaches across lifetimes borders and the space between two hearts A poetic poignant love letter to life Daniel Yeo has important things to tell us about the painful beauty of impermanence and he tells them with a tender lyricism Melissa de Villiers author of The Chameleon House A wistful travel narrative by the RMS Titanic Captain that dives into preternatural waters flowing into surprising and surrealist tributaries of reflections on death
