in theatrical venues and more Pictures supplemented verbal texts and in some cases overshadowed them for conveying news and information portraying people places and events focusing public discourse selling things educating and instructing generating excitement and aesthetic gratification promoting and disguising political agendas shaping social identities and building and undermining social bonds A Flood of Pictures recovers a time before successful pictorial formulas for mass appeal were established before an audience habituated to consumption of pictures existed and before pictures had become thoroughly commodified Through its exploration of these nineteenth century developments the book reveals the foundations of our picture saturated twenty first century Gardner, McAnallen, Ralston and Fehrenbach Family History Beatrice F.
