Rode,1869      Amphibious Realities Gail Day,Steve Edwards,2025-11-25 The photographer filmmaker and theorist Allan Sekula 1951 2013 was one of the most significant media intellectuals of the last fifty years renowned for a sequence of compelling anti capitalist artworks This penetrating study pursues surprising paths through his practice delineating the depicted topics as well as his dialectics of form Posing new questions about the relations between aesthetics and politics Gail Day and Steve Edwards consider Sekula s examination of image modes alongside his radical investigations of terraqueous capitalism      Photoshop Elements 3 Deke McClelland,Galen Fott,2005 Covers the features of Photoshop Elements 3 and includes a training DVD in the book

Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding,2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies      American Photo ,1991-01      Arts & Decoration Combined with the Spur ,1923      The Photo-beacon ,1894      The Imitative Mind Andrew N. Meltzoff,Wolfgang Prinz,2002-04-18 Imitation guides the behaviour of a range of species Scientific advances in the study of imitation at multiple levels from neurons to behaviour have far reaching implications for cognitive science neuroscience and evolutionary and developmental psychology This volume first published in 2002 provides a summary of the research on imitation in both Europe and America including work on infants adults and nonhuman primates with speculations about robotics A special feature of the book is that it provides a concrete instance of the links between developmental psychology neuroscience and cognitive science It showcases how an interdisciplinary approach to imitation can illuminate long standing problems in the brain sciences including consciousness self perception action coding theory of mind and intersubjectivity The book addresses what it means to be human and how we get that way
