The Skeena, River of Destiny. Fifth Edition Richard Geddes LARGE, 1964 Skeena River Prehistory Richard Inglis, George F. MacDonald, 1979-01-01 This volume presents the results of archaeological work along the Skeena River between 1966 and 1971 and includes excavation reports for Gitaus GdTc 2 and Gitlaxdzawk GdTc 1 village sites in the Kitselas Canyon and the Hagwilget Canyon site GhSv 2 Also included are reports on site surveys along the river and on the petroglyphs of the Kitselas Canyon area Published in English Tsimshian Culture Jay Miller, 2000-10-01 The Tsimshians are a Northwest Coast Native people known for their dazzling works of art and rich array of social religious and oral traditions that have captured the attention of scholars for over a century Jay Miller brings together for the first time a wealth of material about the Tsimshians presenting an unforgettable picture of their cultural universe That universe is built around the metaphor of light which was brought into the world by Raven its refraction forms the chief social religious and symbolic institutions of Tsimshian culture Family heraldic crests express light in one way masks in another Miller argues convincingly that the genius of Tsimshian culture and one of the main reasons for its continuing vitality is that its people are sensitive to different and often creative ways of capturing and embodying light Gunboat Frontier Barry M. Gough, 2011-11-01
Gunboat Frontier presents a different interpretation of Indian white relations in nineteenth century British Columbia focusing on the interaction of West Coast Indians with British law and authority This authority was exercised by officers seamen marines and ships of the Royal Navy on behalf of the colonial governments of Vancouver Island and British Columbia and after 1871 of Canada Barry Gough presents new historical evidence provided by the Admiralty Papers an important source of information about nineteenth century Northwest Coast Indian life Drawing on these and other archival and governmental records he chronicles encounters between the Royal Navy and the Indians over missions piracies Native slavery liquor trafficking and crimes against persons and property leading to the final cases of gunboat diplomacy used against local Indians in the late 1880s Kitwanga Fort report George F. MacDonald,1989-01-01 An incisive report on test excavations conducted by archaeologists at the Kitwanga Fort site in British Columbia Evidence from the excavations analysis of artifacts and archaeological testing of the legendary accounts of the warrior chief Nekt constitute an enlightening study of a historical site rich in oral tradition Published in English British Columbia Bizarre Rosemary Neering,2011 British Columbia Bizarre is a fascinating and eclectic mix of tales snippets historical facts fancies and misconceptions teased from the history of British Columbia No one should read this book to obtain a balanced view of the province's history It ignores the important people and trends that contributed to BC's story and instead favours the often strange sometimes wonderful and frequently insignificant events and people that make this province a storyteller's dream Amuse yourself with tales of the brothels bowdy houses and bagnios that existed in every town the wild camels of Vancouver Island communists well sort of duels to the death and goose races And if that isn't enough fill your boots with a potpourri of editorial feuds gamblers and professional hangmen lepers and lynching and let's not forget angry moose Sure to delight and surprise British Columbia Bizarre is a wild safari through provincial history that will confuse your assumptions and tickle your taste for the unusual Passenger and Merchant Ships of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern Railways David R.P. Guay,2016-07-02 The first detailed account of the rise and fall of the maritime branches of two of Canada's great transcontinental railways of the early twentieth century the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern British Columbia 100 Years Ago Fred Thirkell,Bob Scullion,2002 In an era when picture postcards became a unique new way to call home they quickly established a role in enticing an ongoing parade of tourists to British Columbia This book features an impressive collection of black and white lithograph images that were sold to the public in the early twentieth century Documenting life in British Columbia during this period of time each image has a story to tell Collectively they define the state of affairs in BC a century ago The book is divided into geographic regions with an introductory article and map for each Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion's previous book of postcard images Postcards From the Past 1996 won a City of Vancouver Heritage Award The Many Voyages of Arthur Wellington Clah Peggy Brock,2011-04-15 First hand accounts of Indigenous people's encounters with colonialism are rare A daily diary that extends over fifty years is unparalleled Based on a transcription of Arthur Wellington Clah's diaries this book offers a riveting account of a Tsimshian man who moved in both colonial and Aboriginal worlds From his birth in 1831 to his death in 1916 Clah witnessed profound change the arrival of traders missionaries and miners and the establishment of industrial fisheries wage labour and reserves His many voyages physical cultural and spiritual provide an unprecedented Aboriginal perspective on colonial relationships on the Pacific Northwest Coast Scalpels & Buggywhips

Eldon Lee,1997 A short series of profiles about medical pioneers in Central British Columbia many of whom set up practice there in the latter part of the 19th century Lost Bonanzas of Western Canada Garnet Basque,1996 The book contains 13 true stories of lost mines buried treasure and outlaw loot from British Columbia Alberta and the Northwest Territories This collection of stories is unlike most Although many of the stories themselves are not new in the past most authors have merely glamorized the possibility that the treasure existed This author has gone far beyond that spending the time and research necessary trying to establish whether or not the treasure did in fact exist whether the people places and events actually existed It was a complicated process given the number of years that had passed Authenticating them however did not detract from the stories This collection will stir the adventuresome spirit in any reader Carving the Western Path R. G. Harvey,2011-06-15 A century of dealmaking and government misdeeds forms the backdrop of this entertaining account of sternwheelers iron horses and mountain roads Battling factions of rail builders crossed many a line in the sand as they carved up both the land and the spoils of industry Did both federal and provincial politicians wittingly sabotage road construction programs to the benefit of the rail barons Were Cornelius Van Horne Major A B Rogers and Andrew McCulloch fully deserving of the accolades bestowed on them Was railway man J J Hill a genius or an opportunist R G Harvey has applied a keen mind and deft pen to uncover skulduggery in politics and critical routing errors by the early surveyors and engineers who carved their western paths In turn he has exposed new scars and wrinkles to add to historic portraits otherwise untainted Greetings from British Columbia Fred Thirkell,Bob Scullion,2009 Award winning popular historians Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion have assembled an all new collection of postcard views capturing different communities around British Columbia as they appeared at the turn of the 20th century Collectively defining the state of affairs in BC a century ago each one of these images has a story to tell Once a thriving cannery town Port Essington is now long gone abandoned and then destroyed by forest fires They may have mined millions of dollars in gold at Stout s Gulch but you ll have trouble finding it on any maps today Even Kelowna s main street is unrecognizable With each passing year it becomes more difficult to find rare and unusual black and white printed postcards from this period Many of the ones Thirkell and Scullion have included in Greetings from British Columbia are themselves rare borrowed from the collection of a pre eminent postcard dealer without whose cooperation this new collection would not have been possible A Thousand Blunders Frank Leonard,2011-11-01 During the first two decades of this century the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway played an important part in the development of the north central corridor of British Columbia The GTP which ran from Winnipeg via the Yellowhead Pass and Edmonton to Prince Rupert on the northwest coast was built to supplant the Canadian Pacific line to Vancouver The B C line was the most expensive and least remunerative of its sections and contributed ultimately to the company s collapse in 1919 In A Thousand Blunders Frank Leonard looks at why the Road of a Thousand Wonders failed to live up to the expectations forecast by company president Charles M Hays and other senior managers Not only was the railway built through a sparsely settled region which generated little immediate traffic but its economic difficulties were also compounded by the numerous mistakes made by managers at all levels for example their failure to respond adequately to labour shortages caused serious delays and prevented the company from proving Prince Rupert as an effective alternative harbour before World War I broke out For this book Frank Leonard had access to a wealth of original documents among them the GTP legal department files providing him with insights into the decisions that formed the basis for policies in townsites and on Indian reserves A Thousand Blunders is a provocative account of one of the greatest failures in Canadian entrepreneurial history Richly detailed and thoroughly documented it makes an important contribution to the fields of railway and business history as well as to the study of the history of northern British Columbia

Households of Faith

Nancy Christie,2002 Annotation An examination of the intersection of religious and familial discourse over the course of two centuries Households of Faith examines a variety of religious traditions with a particular focus on the way in which religious communities define gender identities The authors explore the boundaries drawn in religious discourse between the private and public offering a revisionist perspective on the theoretical framework of separate spheres By analysing gender relations within the matrix of the family they explore both the conflicts and interdependency of gender roles

Carving the Western Path Robert Gourlay Harvey,1999 The history of British Columbia s transportation systems north of the Canadian National Railway s mainline may not be well known but it certainly is colourful Continuing the story he began in the first volume of Carving the Western Path R G Harvey describes the development of river road and rail routes that crossed the northern two thirds of BC This was a land of dreams and schemes that seemed to feed on each other It started with the Collins Overland Telegraph a communication link that was to connect Europe and America in the 1860s Though this plan collapsed with the success of the trans Atlantic cable the telegraph surveyors established patterns for future roads and settlement They also sparked the Omineca gold rush It was a land full of larger than life characters including Charles Hays who dreamed of a major seaport at Prince Rupert but died on the Titanic before he could realize his vision Charles Bedaux who in the 1930s carved his 416 mile path into the northern Rockies Railway promoters Warburton Pike Sir Edward Phillipp Wolley William Mackenzie and Donald Mann who got gifts of land and money but couldn t always meet their promises Their stories mingle with those of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway the Alaska Highway the White Pass and Yukon Railway and those of the sternwheelers fur traders gold miners and other adventurers who were drawn to this last frontier

City: Prince Rupert To 1914 Sue Harper Rowse,2005-09-14 On March 10th 2010 Prince Rupert will be celebrating its 100th Birthday Carved from the wilderness it was envisioned in 1905 by Charles Hays Manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway that this northern BC city would rival that of Vancouver in just a few short years From the first landing of surveyors on the shores of Kaien Island to the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Knoxville s building of the townsite on stilts and planks development of a huge fishing industry and port This volume leads you through an era of human struggle determination and dreams of what the future could bring It is the amazing story of Prince Rupert and its pioneers between 1905 and 1914 who battled against all odds to develop this unique northern community Packed with interesting information and early photographs this volume is a delightful journey through time
