It is often considered one of the most powerful forms of evidence, as it can provide crucial information about a crime that may not be available through other means. However, the reliability of eyewitness testimony has been called into question in recent years, as studies have shown that memory is not always as accurate as we might like to think.

When used properly, it can provide important details about a crime that may not be available through other means. For example, a witness may be able to describe the appearance of a suspect, the make and model of a vehicle involved in a crime, or the location and time of an incident.
