3 Quarters Denis Hamill,2015-08-04 Explosive street savvy and authentic acclaimed columnist Denis Hamill s novels are drawn in the gritty ink that can only flow from the pen of a native New Yorker and a superbly talented writer Now blending sinuous prose with a hair trigger delivery Hamill etches a novel set in a mercenary New York where friends become enemies cops are corrupted and some must die all for the sake of Bobby Emmet was a desperate man an honest New York City cop framed for the murder of his fianc e and given one last chance to save himself by an unlikely benefactor Bobby didn t murder his fiancée Dorothea Dubrow and then cremate the body but he has an idea who is responsible His murder trial interrupted his investigation of a police medical pension scam and revealed how little he really knew about Dorothea Now suddenly free he is imprisoned in a web of corruption lies and the kind of secrets people kill for Beginning his search for the truth at a shady security firm that employs able bodied ex cops all of whom have mysteriously qualified for medical pensions equal to a cool three quarters of their salaries he stumbles upon a startling discovery the cremated remains that led to his conviction didn t really belong to Dorothea Bobby has a few allies his policeman brother his hacker daughter his flamboyantly unprincipled lawyer a cop or two who stood by him through the trial But the same forces that landed him in jail more than a year before are putting a smothering squeeze on him now and all roads lead to a powerful politician who will let nothing get between himself and the governor's mansion As the struggle to find the truth and Dorothea intensifies Bobby begins to suspect that those around him are not as loyal as they appear His liberty and very life depend on whether or not he can discover how high and how near the conspiracy goes before the trap closes on him At once lyrical and riveting Three Quarters crackles in its electric setting reverberating with a relentless energy Lawrence Block fueled by Hamill's intimate knowledge of and intense passion for New York City
