Castagno, 2019-10-22 How being nice in school and university settings works to reinforce racialized gendered and disability related inequities in education and society Being nice is difficult to critique Niceness is almost always portrayed and felt as a positive quality In schools nice teachers are popular among students parents and administrators And yet Niceness as a distinct set of practices and discourses is not actually good for individuals institutions or communities because of the way it maintains and reinforces educational inequity In The Price of Nice an interdisciplinary group of scholars explores Niceness in educational spaces from elementary schools through higher education to highlight how this seemingly benign quality reinforces structural inequalities Grounded in data personal narrative and theory the chapters show that Niceness as a raced gendered and classed set of behaviors functions both as a shield to save educators from having to do the hard work of dismantling inequity and as a disciplining agent for those who attempt or even consider disrupting structures and ideologies of dominance Contributors Sarah Abuwandi Arizona State U Colin Ben U of Utah Nicholas Bustamante Arizona State U Aidan Amanda J Charles Northern Arizona U Jeremiah Chin Arizona State U Sally Campbell Galman U of Massachusetts Frederick Gooding Jr Texas Christian U Deirdre Judge Tufts U Katie A Lazdowski Rom n Liera U of Southern California Sylvia Mac U of La Verne Lindsey Malcolm Piqueux California Institute of Technology Giselle Martinez Negrette U of Wisconsin Madison Amber Poleviyuma Arizona State U Alexis Richmond Arizona State U Frances J Riemer Northern Arizona U Jessica Sierk St Lawrence U Bailey B Smolarek U of Wisconsin Madison Jessica Solyom Arizona State U Megan Tom Arizona State U Sabina Vaught U of Oklahoma Cynthia Diana Villarreal U of Southern California Kristine T Weatherston Temple U Joseph C Wegwert Northern Arizona U Marguerite Anne Fillion Wilson Binghamton U Jia Hui Stefanie Wong Trinity College Denise Gray Yull Binghamton U      Silver Thaw and Selected Stories Ron Johnson, 2005-01-01 Silver Thaw is set in the late 60s in the Great Central Valley of California It s a story of four friends forced to confront the moral sexual and political parameters which will define their adult lives There is the loss of innocence precipitated by the Vietnam War but the main battle is an internal struggle that each must encounter and confront within themselves Art is a quiet independent minded college student who wants to become a high school shop teacher He has recently become intimate with June a survivor of the working class trailer park where her mother died of alcoholism She is attending college to escape the pain of her past Her roommate Honey is seeking a life with a man she can believe in An elemental aggressive woman sexually confident Honey is a woman by whom men define themselves She is falling in love with Jess who is finishing college under the Army ROTC program Jess wants a part of Vietnam and he wants Honey The war can t wait and she can To survive the four must recognize their own flawed human nature and must learn to defend the notion of human decency in the ordinary conduct of their affairs Selected Stories Award winning stories previously released in some of America s favorite literary journals these works of fiction will leave the reader wanting for days gone by a more innocent time in our history      The Bee Keepers' Review ,1892      The
