Health Reforms in Post-Communist Eastern Europe Tamara Popic, 2023-01-01 This book provides the first in depth study of healthcare reforms in post communist Eastern Europe Combining insights from comparative politics and public policy analysis it examines health reforms in Slovenia the Czech Republic and Poland between 1989 and 2019 The book argues that the post communist transformation of healthcare policy has entailed a process of policy learning and that the countries reform pathways were shaped by a series of initiatives aimed at applying market oriented policy ideas in healthcare The success of these initiatives has been influenced by three factors policy legacies political competition and institutional configurations The book offers a novel comparison of health reform in the region and policy changes more generally It will appeal to scholars and students of public policy health policy and European politics Health Care in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe Michael Kaser, 2024-11-26 Health Care in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe 1976 examines the systems of health care in the Communist countries of the Eastern Bloc Many enjoyed comprehensive free health care established with the Communist takeovers and transition to planned economies as they moved from an agrarian to an industrialised system This book traces their beginnings and development and offers comparisons between each of them as well as with the West

Social Medicine in Eastern Europe; the Organization of Health Services and the Education of Medical Personnel in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Poland , 1968 Monograph presenting a comparison of the organization of national level health services and the training of medical personnel in Czechoslovakia Hungary and Poland covers social administration socialist social policy health related research activities social security programmes etc References and statistical tables The Post-Communist World in the Twenty-First Century Barbara Ann Chotiner, Linda J. Cook, 2022-06-28 The Post Communist World in the Twenty First Century presents studies by senior scholars and practitioners that are highly relevant to contemporary political challenges The democratic vision that accompanied the collapse of communist regimes in the Soviet Union and East Central Europe has been replaced by a range of authoritarian semi authoritarian and democratic regimes and growing division between Western and Russian influence Russia s invasion of Ukraine has led to renewed tensions and international crisis China which presents major challenges to the US Europe and the global order has emerged as a critical actor in the international conflict The need to understand the internal dynamics and international behavior of communist and authoritarian regimes is more urgent at this time The expertise provided by the volume s contributors is especially timely offering new insights into the past and contemporary politics of these states the agendas driving their behavior regimes domestic strengths and weaknesses and the role of leaders differing perceptions in exacerbating international conflict Practitioners demonstrate how such knowledge can inform effective policy and ameliorative efforts

Gender in Twentieth-Century Eastern Europe and the USSR Catherine Baker, 2016-09-29 A concise and accessible introduction to the gender histories of eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the 20th century These essays juxtapose established topics in gender history such as motherhood masculinities work and activism with newer areas such as the history of imprisonment and the transnational history of sexuality By collecting these essays in a single volume Catherine Baker encourages historians to look at gender history across borders and time periods emphasising that evidence and debates from Eastern Europe can inform broader approaches to contemporary gender history Globalizing Eastern Europe Gilad Ben-Nun, Katja Castryck-Naumann, Lena Dallywater, 2025-08-21 For far too long views of Eastern Europe as a negligible and peripheral region have shaped popular perceptions of this part of the world Presenting new research Globalizing Eastern Europe Politics Culture and Economics from the 18th to the 21st Century offers refreshing arguments to counter such misconceptions Global politics and international law have been profoundly shaped by the experiences and expertise that emanated from this region Migration to and from Eastern Europe has fostered deep ties with neighbouring and distant societies as have this area's literature and music The importance of its agricultural development has reverberated in the global economy This volume recasts Eastern Europe as a global region It shows how people from this part of the world shaped the global and how in turn the global shaped them Authors from a range of disciplines chart century long traditions of entanglements and contemporary interactions In doing so this book further enriches the perennial debates regarding this region's spatial boundaries Pressures for Reform in the East European Economies, 1989 Health and Economic Development in South-eastern Europe Council of Europe Development Bank, 2006 The economic benefits to be gained from investment in public health are increasingly being recognised as well as its importance for social cohesion and these objectives play a central role in the European Union's Lisbon agenda This study seeks to demonstrate the economic importance of the health sector for the countries of south eastern Europe by examining trends and patterns of disease burden and socioeconomic inequalities in health the development of health systems and health policies as well as options for policy development in order to meet future health challenges in the region Social Medicine Libuše Čeledová, Jan Holčík, 2019-05-01 The scope of medicine has expanded during the last few decades to include not only health problems of individuals but those of communities as well Health development is essential to socio economic development as a whole Social Medicine is mainly concerned with the health situation with the measurement of population health and with genetic social and environmental factors influencing human health disease and disability health needs and demands health care system and its components structure and function health policy health programmes evaluation of health systems and services health legislation health economy health insurance the relation between health and social care informatics and health
