isms may have been historically transitional But politics now appears more nuanced if no less troubled following the collapse of the Soviet bloc between 1989 and 1991 Multiculturalism and identity politics as well as communitarianism flourished in the 1990s The volume is divided into five parts Capitalism Inequalities and Alternatives Multiculturalism and Identity Politics Communitarianism Theory and Theorists and Autobiographical Reminiscences This concluding part indicates how Wrong's work includes self reflections as well as reflections an examination of how figures such as C Wright Mills and Raymond Aron Amitai Etzioni and Digby Baltzell played a role in shaping his own thought and how these changed over the course of the past century This is the third collection of the essays and articles of Dennis H Wrong published by Transaction As was the case with his earlier volumes Reflections on a Politically Skeptical Era is characterized by a deep attention to the actual social history of our times and how this plays out in academic pursuits especially within sociology Whether the works were published in academic journals or more popular media they reflect a quality of literary manners that is rare among social science writings but a reflection that never sacrifices a sense of principle and probity in the process Dennis H Wrong is the author of several books including two essay collections containing articles first published in cultural intellectual political and scholarly journals in the United States Canada and Britain several of which he has served as an editor or editor in chief He has taught sociology at Princeton Rutgers Brown the University of Toronto the New School for Social Research Graduate Faculty and for most of his career at New York University He is currently retired and lives in Princeton
