Social Belongingness and Well-Being: International Perspectives Dario Paez, Juan Carlos Oyanedel, 2021-10-18 Johannine Social Identity Formation after the Fall of the Jerusalem Temple Christopher A. Porter, 2021-10-25 In Johannine Social Identity Formation after the Fall of the Jerusalem Temple Christopher Porter reads the Fourth Gospel through the lens of social identity theory as means of reconciling the social dislocation and trauma of the destruction of the Jerusalem temple Analysing the Fourth Gospel in conversation with other temple removed texts of Qumran Philo and Josephus the gospel s intent to renegotiate cultic life without the temple can be seen Through this analysis it is argued that the Fourth Gospel primarily functions as an intra mural Jewish text attempting to negotiate the formation of a Jesus follower social identity in direct continuity with earlier Jewish shared social narratives Finally this work reviews the Johannine Community as an outcome of the Gospel identity formation

“The Teaching of These Words”: Intertextuality, Social Identity, and Early Christianity, 2024-07-15 What does it mean for a group to speak of its identity and in contrast to speak about the other As with all groups early Christian communities underwent a process of identity formation and in this process intertextuality played a role The choice of biblical texts and imageries their reception and adaptation affected how early Christian communities perceived themselves Conversely how they perceived themselves affected which texts they were drawn to and how they read and received them The contributors to this volume examine how early Christian authors used Scripture and related texts and in turn how those texts shaped the identity of their communities Metaphors and Social Identity Formation in Paul's Letters to the Corinthians Kar Yong Lim, 2017-05-05 Why did Paul frequently employ a diverse range of metaphors in his letters to the Corinthians Was the choice of these metaphors a random act or a carefully crafted rhetorical strategy Did the use of metaphors shape the worldview and behavior of the Christ followers In this innovative work Kar Yong Lim draws upon Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Social Identity Theory to answer these questions Lim illustrates that Paul employs a cluster of metaphors namely sibling familial temple and body metaphors as cognitive tools that are central to how humans process information construct reality and shape group identity Carefully chosen these metaphors not only add colors to Paul's rhetorical strategy but also serve as a powerful tool of communication in shaping the thinking governing the behavior and constructing the social identity of the Corinthian Christ followers
