Francis, Mandy Robbins, Jeff Astley, 2009 Empirical theology offers fresh and stimulating insights into the concerns of both the Church and the Academy It does this by accessing relevant empirical evidence using the tools of the social sciences and placing this evidence in the context of theological critique and contemporary debate In this pioneering collection of focused essays leading experts of empirical theology illustrate key perspectives within this rapidly expanding discipline The first section of the book explores theoretical issues underpinning the main methods of obtaining empirical data and the use of these data within theology The other two sections display the role both of qualitative studies and of the analysis of quantitative data in exploring a range of theological beliefs and religious social and educational concerns Social Cognition and Social Development E. Tory Higgins, Diane N. Ruble, William W. Hartup, 1985-07-26 In psychology there has been an explosion of interest in what has come to be called social cognition How do people categorise and conceptualise social situations obligations and relationships And what are the implications of their categorisations and conceptualisations for behaviour Developmental and social psychologists are currently converging on the developmental roots of social cognitive abilities This timely 1983 book offers a useful overview of research and theory concerning social cognition and social behaviour in children at the time of this book s publication A full range of theoretical approaches is represented key problems are systematically reviewed and research programmes and perspectives of leading psychologists in the field are summarised Socialization Philip Mayer,1970 Producing African Futures Brad Weiss,2004-01-01 The cumulative implications for Africans of the neoliberal processes market speculation shifts in sites of production new modes of consumption redefinition of the relation between states and their citizenry cannot be reduced to single parameters Three themes are central the neoliberal production of personhood the crises of youth and the moral panic in which so many of the wider reforms are registered in experience With contributions on marriage payments Muslim saints popular theatre homosexuality ritual haunts domestic reproduction masculine fantasy poetic justice spirit possession and corruption
