Personal Relationships Across Cultures Robin Goodwin, 2013-05-13 Is falling in love the same the world over? What makes a happy marriage in different cultures? How does our society influence us in the way we raise our children? Is modern life incompatible with intimacy? In this innovative new text Robin Goodwin challenges many of the established views on relationships by considering how different cultures view different relationships: love, marriage, friendship, the family, sexual relations. By discussing fundamental differences in values between cultures alongside other key influences such as social class and education he explores why these differences occur and how different political and historical events have challenged existing patterns of relationships. Finally drawing on research from all parts of the world he considers how we can use this knowledge to help different communities across the globe cope with their most pressing relational challenges.
