But when they got together this coming Friday the 13th which was only two days away their game was about to take a fatal turn for them all. Finally their long awaited fun filled night of Dare came and they were all excited to get together as they always have for the past five years. Tim called Susan and Brian on the phone and told them to be at his house by 7 p.m. He also said they would all set out into the woods to camp out at the cemetery. Susan and Brian showed up right on time. Brian said Tim I wouldn't miss this for the world. We've all been best of friends for as long as I can remember and meeting here to play the Dare game at the cemetery is so much fun.
