The Death Penalty Debate Two Opposing Views Of Capital Punishment Issues Of Christian Conscience:

The Death Penalty James J. Megivern, 1997 A comprehensive history of the death penalty in the West that provides more material on capital punishment in Western Christian history than is available in any other work in English The Death Penalty Debate H. Wayne House, John Howard Yoder, 1991 After several decades of judicial and legislative rulings outlawing capital punishment American sentiment in recent times has swung in favor of the death penalty Candidates in major political races across the land now expect to win votes by bragging about how many criminals they have sent to death row Opponents of capital punishment however are far from silent They insist that the death penalty violates the Christian's high view of life How they ask can a person who believes in the forgiveness of sins and the grace of God advocate another human being's death In The Death of Penalty Debate two respected authors H Wayne House and John Howard Yoder lay before us the pro and con arguments on the validity of capital punishment Beginning with Genesis 9:6 both men trace the historical and scriptural ideas for and against the death penalty In the course of their discussion they raise compelling questions Does the death penalty work Is it immoral Who should be put to death and for what crimes Does a crime threatened society need the death penalty for its own protection What do Moses and Jesus and the apostles say to guide us in forming our own ideas on this matter Addressing these questions and many others House and Yoder in this carefully documented volume capably present the strongest arguments on both sides of the capital punishment issue The Death Penalty Debate is a valuable guide which will aid readers in making up their minds on this timely and crucial issue A helpful annotated bibliography is included from back cover Capital Punishment: New Perspectives Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-04-08 This collection asks questions about the received wisdom of the debate about capital punishment Woven through the book questions are asked of and remedies proposed for a raft of issues identified as having been overlooked in the traditional discourse It provides a long overdue review of the disparate groups and strategies that lay claim to abolitionism The authors argue that capital litigators should use their skills challenging the abuses not just of process but of the conditions in which the condemned await their fate namely prison conditions education leisure visits medical services etc In the aftermath of successful constitutional challenges it is the beneficiaries arguably those who are considered successes having been saved from the death penalty and now serving living death penalties of one sort or another who are suffering the cruel and inhumane alternative Part I of the book offers a selection of diverse nuanced examinations of death penalty phenomena scrutinizing complexities frequently omitted from the narrative of academics and activists It offers a challenging and comprehensive analysis of issues critical to the abolition debate Part II offers examinations of countries usually absent from academic analysis to provide an understanding of the status of the debate locally with opportunities for wider application Capital Punishment Peter Hodgkinson, Andrew Rutherford, 1996 An analysis of the use of the death penalty across the world together with the underlying arguments This book ranks as the original in depth treatment by the Director of Studies at the Centre for Capital

Punishment Studies University of Westminster and another leading academic plus leading commentators from around the world including the USA North America's Michael L Radlett William A Shabas and Hugo Adam Bedau Capital Punishment in the United States Bryan Vila, Cynthia Morris, 1997-08-30 Both sides of the highly charged capital punishment debate in the United States are examined in this breakthrough collection of 112 key documents arranged by historical period The political and social aspects of the debate are represented through a wide range of documents including congressional hearings Supreme Court decisions position papers biographical accounts and news stories An explanatory introduction precedes each document to help readers understand how various and seemingly unrelated social economic and political factors have impacted public attitudes legislation and judicial decisions pertaining to capital punishment Vila and Morris provide us with the historical and ecological framework in which this centuries old debate has unfolded This volume is organized into six parts each one representing a different time period Colonial Era to Independence 1800 1917 1918 1959 1960 1976 1977 1989 and the 1990s The documents provided in each part trace the history and development of the debate chronicling the ebb and flow of support for the death penalty during different periods in our country's history Special attention is paid to the effects of particular events in history the American Revolution the Great Depression and the Civil Rights movement for example on the ever changing opinions concerning capital punishment The representation of both sides of the debate found in these documents will encourage and challenge students policymakers and concerned citizens to examine their own viewpoints and draw their own conclusions on the capital punishment debate The International Library of Essays on Capital Punishment, Volume 1 Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-12-05 This volume provides up to date and nuanced analysis across a wide spectrum of capital punishment issues The essays move beyond the conventional legal approach and propose fresh perspectives including a unique critique of the abolition sector Written by a range of leading experts with diverse geographical methodological and conceptual approaches the essays in this volume challenge received wisdom and embrace a holistic understanding of capital punishment based on practical experience and empirical data This collection is indispensable reading for anyone seeking a comprehensive and detailed understanding of the complexity of the death penalty discourse

War, Peace, and Social Conscience Theron F. Schlabach, 2009-11-23 John Howard Yoder is one of the best known Mennonite thinkers on peace But before Yoder there was Guy F Hersherberger whose reflections on war violence and peace helped Mennonites navigate perilous times in early to mid 20th century and who also laid the foundation for what became the Alternative Service Program in the U S during World War II In the 1960s he played an important role in guiding the Mennonite church's response to the civil rights movement nudging them toward greater openness to Martin Luther King's call for justice for African Americans In this definitive biography Theron F Schlabach shows how Hersherberger helped Christians live their faith in a world beset by war and injustice at the same time pioneering creative ways to engage pressing concerns such as civil rights economic justice and capital punishment Says Stanley Hauerwas Professor of Theological Ethics

Duke Divinity School What Schlabach has given us is an invaluable honest account of a life lived in the tensions of the Mennonite church as that church explored the implications of being a people committed to nonviolence The resulting account is a crucial account not only of Hershberger s life but of Mennonite life an accounting I hope non Mennonites will find instructive because it may help them understand Mennonites but more importantly how Mennonites help us better understand what being Christian entails War Peace and Social Conscience Guy F Hershberger and Mennonite Ethics was made possible through the generous support of Mennonite Mutual Aid and the Mennonite Historical Society Moral Issues and Christian Responses Patricia Beattie Jung,Loyle Shannon Jung,2012-09-01 This popular anthology for the study of Christian ethics now in its eighth edition has been a mainstay of undergraduate courses for nearly thirty years Shannon and Patricia Jung provide an introduction to contemporary moral issues from decidedly yet diverse Christian moral perspectives The anthology intentionally seeks a range of voices to produce a kind of point counterpoint discussion of an ethical issue Issues include the distinctiveness of Christian ethics sexuality reproductive rights prejudice immigration the environment economics biomedical ethics death and dying terrorism war and globalization Publisher description

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1992 Capital Punishment and the American Agenda Franklin E. Zimring,Gordon Hawkins,1989-02-24 This book redefines the central political and legal issues of the death penalty in the light of the social political and moral conditions of the United States in the 1980s The book which shows a United States pursuing an active execution policy is an original and compelling contribution to the discussion of the future of the death penalty
