The Death Ego And The Vital Self Romances Of Desire In Literature And Psychoanalysis:

The Death-ego and the Vital Self Gavriel Reisner, 2003 This volume presents original views of the relationship between desire and romance It begins by looking anew at the nature of desire citing its central theoretical text as Freud's Beyond the Pleasure Principle It traces the struggle between myth and romance between the ego on its way to death and the self in search of life through close readings of poems and letters of John Keats and in detailed considerations of a series of novels including Frankenstein Wuthering Heights Jane Eyre and Sons and Lovers Desire for Love Marina Ragachewskaya, 2012-11-15 Desire for Love The Secret Longings of the Human Heart in D H Lawrence's Works is a collection of essays dedicated to several novels novellas short stories and non fiction by D H Lawrence one of the great 20th century English writers With the help of the psychoanalytic textual approach Marina Ragachewskaya analyses subtle expressions of the emotional sphere in Lawrence's characters and their desire for love which is realised linguistically stylistically and symbolically The discussion of the writer's textual subtleties suggests emotional education and intellectual delight The book offers an outline of Lawrence's own psychoanalytic theory and how it is implemented in his fiction Specific issues such as love discourse the unnamed eros a Jungian quest in search of love Doppelgangers love of power and the power of love sublimation and the language of dance as well as love in the time of war pertain to the discovery of unconscious desires and a culture of feeling in Lawrence Comparisons with other authors are surprisingly rare in Lawrence studies To fill this gap the volume also contains an essay on Lawrence's war stories analysed alongside Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Pat Barker's Regeneration This inquiry into genuine human feeling will be equally attractive to literature scholars students and general readers Women Writers and the Hero of Romance J. Wilt, 2014-06-25 Women Writers and the Hero of Romance studies the nature of the hero and his meaning for the female seeker or quester in romance fiction from Wuthering Heights to Fifty Shades of Grey The book includes chapters on Wuthering Heights Middlemarch The Scarlet Pimpernel The Sheik and the novels of Ayn Rand and Dorothy Dunnett The Intelligent Unconscious in Modernist Literature and Science Thalia Trigoni, 2020-11-16 This book reassesses the philosophical psychological and above all the literary representations of the unconscious in the early twentieth century This period is distinctive in the history of responses to the unconscious because it gave rise to a line of thought according to which the unconscious is an intelligent agent able to perform judgements and formulate its own thoughts The roots of this theory stretch back to nineteenth century British physiologists Despite the production of a number of studies on modernist theories of the relation of the unconscious to conscious cognition the degree to which the notion of the intelligent unconscious influenced modernist thinkers and writers remains understudied This study seeks to look back at modernism from beyond the Freudian model It is striking that although we tend not to explore the importance of this way of thinking about the unconscious and its relationship to consciousness during this period modernist writers adopted it widely The intelligent unconscious was particularly appealing to literary authors as it is intertwined with creativity and artistic novelty through its ability to move beyond discursive logic The book concentrates primarily on the works of D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and T S Eliot authors who engaged the notion of the intelligent unconscious reworked it and offered it for the consumption of the general populace in varied ways and for different purposes whether aesthetic philosophical societal or ideological Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association MSA First Book Prize and for the 2021 British Society for Literature and Science Book Prize

Mosaic of Juxtaposition Micheal Sean Bolton, 2014-05-20 William S Burroughs experimental narratives from the 1959 publication of Naked Lunch through the late trilogy of the 1980s have provided readers with intriguing challenges and for some disheartening frustrations Yet these novels continue to generate new interest and inspire new insights among an increasing and evolving readership This book addresses the unique characteristics of Burroughs narrative style in order to discover strategies for engaging and navigating these demanding novels Bolton advises Burroughs subversive themes and randomizing techniques do not amount to unmitigated attacks on conventions as many critics suggest but constitute part of a careful strategy for effecting transformations in his readers Utilizing various poststructuralist theories as well as recent theories in electronic literature and posthumanism Mosaic of Juxtaposition examines the various strategies that Burroughs employs to challenge assumptions about textual interpretation and to redefine the relationship between reader and text

The Reception of Northrop Frye ,2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye s influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete his work buried in obscurity This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton s 1983 rhetorical question Who now reads Frye In The Reception of Northrop Frye Robert D Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye books articles translations dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye s work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geomantic rate Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye s reception in front of us such as Hayden White s theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Almén s theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton s rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential Flannery O'Connor Review ,2008
